committal way he responded : "Mar-shall Brown's pups have got their The Secretary read eyes open !"

After this explicit response there can be no doubt that the devotion of the W.G.C. will be recognized when Grant is President.

I then called on Colfax and assured him that he had been the choice of Weaksville from the start, that the fax having been received with the utresolutions endorsing Fenton were most enthusiasm throughout the counmerely complimentary, out of grati-tude for the pardon of a relative of owing to the backwardness of the seathe Secretary of the club, who, having son the enthusiasm has not blossomed no funds of his own at the bank, had out as yet. used the name of a gentleman who had, on a check for a thousand dol-lars, for which the prejudiced crimi-nal authorities had sent him to Sing Sing. I also reminded Schuyler that he and I were brother typos. He was a printer in his carly life, and you no doubt remember with gratitude how I came to your assistance at that time of the printer's strike, and set up a portion of my epistle. I meant to have followed it up and become a regular printer, but when Mrs. O'Lanus heard that you were dropped the case for the pen, which is mightier than the shooting stick. Colfax and I were old friends after this introduction. I told him that his rulings in the chair had always elicited my warmest admiration, and as Ben Wade had been found want-ing, no fitter man for promotion could have been selected, and that I had the fullest conviction that he would go up in November next with the entire ticket. Colfax was very affable, but he didn't ask me to take anything. He is doing the temperature so that the Chicago ticket, like the platform, is half and half.

Having become disgusted with the gratitude of Democracy and despair-ing of the Postoffice under the present administration, I find consolation in the Chicago platform, which comprehends everything in general and nothing i particular, and taken in connection with Grant's letter of acceptance hold out a political prospect on which th imagination can exercise in perfect freedom, without being cramped by defined dogmas about the national credit, negro suffrage or whatever. The Weeksville Grant and Colfax Club, which lacked one of a sufficiency of members to fill the necessary offices of President, Secretary, Treas urer and Sergernt-at-Arms, received me with rejoicing, and on my agree-ment to pay the expenses of the room, we held a meeting.

The Secretary read the question put in Congressional shape.

Resolved, That the Weeksville Grant and Col-fax Club do now adjourn to take a drink. Carried unanimously. The Club intend to conduct the campaign with energy. The nominations of Grant and Col-
