THE times are hard; you'd like to know.
How you may save your dollars;
The way to do it I will show,
If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That equandered all he made,

I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I look thread hear and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go. To get a sait that's cound and chesp: To REIZENSTKIN & Oc. He took what little he had saved,

And went to Reinenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others. New he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such. That when they take their doily meal, They don't eat half as much.

And now be finds on Samrday night,
With all their wants supplied,
That he has money left to spend,
And some to lay axide.
