

The contest this fall between Horatio Seymour and Hiram S. Grant is simply one between brains and buttons. Grant has no qualification for the office beyond his military fust.

The Radicals find fault with Wade Hampton because he is an ex-Radical and a Democrat. How about Jack Hamilton and J. Brown, the founder and defender of Andersonville.

Keep the fire issue of the day before the people. Don't allow the criminal Radicals to shield their atrocities now, as they did during the war, behind the American flag.

Hon. William M. Everts, the new Attorney-General of the United States, has taken the oath of office before Judge Wylie, of the District Supreme Court, and entered upon the duties of his new office.

Clerical Calumny.—The Biddeford Maine Democrat, says that one of the clerks of the State, in that State, speaking of Senator Fessenden's vote on the impeachment, said: "There's one more Maine man gone to hell!"

The New Orleans clergyman complain that bands of politicians, attended in some instances by bands of music, traverse the streets and seduce the colored people away from their sanctuaries for many weeks to listen to political harangues.

A few days ago in York county, on the road leading from York to Gettysburg, seven boys, the oldest 17 years of age, members of one family named Schaeffer, while out in the corn field, were stung by locusts, and all seven died. They were all buried the same day.

Hon. P. T. Backus, a prominent Ohioan, has led the Radical party, and in a speech at Cleveland, the other day came out strong for Seymour and Blair. A little ungrateful, too, for Wendell Phillips says that Grant "worships at the shrine of Backus."

The first act of the Arkansas carpet-bag Representatives, after being sworn in, was to demand pay from March 1, 1867, though only elected March 13, 1868, and the first act of the Senators was to vote against the confirmation of S. E. Cox as minister to Austria. Truly these fellows begin to rule us early.

Grant's "western tour" is a great success—as a funeral march. He goes into a town, and goes out of it without as much demonstration about it, as is ordinarily needed over the march of a company of gypsies through a city. He is the dearest bear that ever yet got his name before a people for any office.

We suppose no one but a political idiot doubts that Governor Seymour will carry the States of New York and Pennsylvania, casting, combined, fifty-nine electoral votes. These great States always vote for the winning man. No man has ever been elected without them, or is likely to be, for years to come.

Jewell, the Mongrel nominee for Governor of Connecticut last spring, is a bankrupt. He was bled by the thieves of his party to the tune of $74,000, more than one-half of his entire fortune. He was made to believe that such a sum would make him election sure; but he now sees the swindle with a heart not altogether in unison with the financial genius of his party.

Tom bought a gallon of gin to take home, and, by way of label, wrote his name upon a card, which happened to be the name of a club, and tied it to the handle. A friend coming along, and observing the jug, quietly remarked: "That's a awful careless way to leave that liquor." "Why?" said Tom. "Because somebody might come along with the jug and take it."

The artisan well at St. Louis, which is being bored by the county, has reached a depth of 3,147 feet and is the deepest in the world. There is no water yet. If they keep on boring they will soon reach the depth at which, say certain geologists, fire slumbers in the bowels of the earth. They had better suspend operations, at least until the return of cold weather.

A report has been received at the headquarters of the army from General Gillem, commanding the Fourth Military District, dated Vicksburg, Mississippi, showing that the Constitution is defeated in that State by 7,629 majority. Only one Republican member of Congress, General McKee, is returned as elected. Jefferson Davis' State is still white, notwithstanding the Bureau manipulations.

The recent robbery of the Importers and Traders' Bank New York, appears to have been a very mysterious affair. The money was secured in a burglar proof safe, with a combination lock, which required five persons, each knowing only a part of its secret operations, to open it, yet over fifty thousand dollars in gold were taken from it, and the lock apparently was not perturbed.

"I am a Democrat; every man in my regiment is a Democrat, and when I shall be convinced that this war has for its object any other than what I have mentioned, or the Government designs using its soldiers to execute the purpose of the abolitionists, I pledge you my honor as a soldier that I will carry my sword on the other side and cast my lot with that people."—Col. U. S. Grant, in 1861.

Fornay and Stevens.—A Prophecy.—Writing to one of his "two papers, both daily," on the close of the impeachment trial, Col. Fornay, clerk of the "high court," made this prophecy: "Should the Senate of the United States fail to convict Andrew Johnson on the accusations of the House, an electoral vote except West Virginia, Missouri, and Tennessee will be given to General Grant in the South-western States next November."

Stevens prophesied that "if the President was not convicted, the Radical candidate would carry but two Northern States—Massachusetts and Vermont."
