THE JUDGESHIP .- The Judicial Conference re-assembled, in this place, on Tuesday; and up to 12 o'clock on Wednesday, as we go to press, the balloti ng goes on, each county adhering to its own candidate, except at DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA: such periods as no nomination can be effected by a change.

Swinging Around the Circle.

The Chairman of the "loyal" County Committee, while in Philadelphia last week, hunting funds with which to corrupt the voters of this county if possible, took special occasion to slander his neighbors, who are a thousand fold his superior, socially, morally and otherwise. The Age, in refering to this social affliction in our midst, says:

One Swoope, a "mouthy man," ridiculed the poor white men of the city at the Hadical meeting with rate white men. Will the workingmen of this city packet this locall and vots for the Radical dicket at the coming election? Are the intelligent mechanics and suchingman of this city willing to be classed with the negmes and abandoned outcasts of "Bedford street and the Five Points". This was the point made by Swoope and applauded by the Radicals.

The Radicals are like old women, who, fatting to answer the arguments of their adversaries, take to calling hard names. At the recent faxle down town, Forney introduced one "Butcher" Swoope, whose stock in trade was abone of a Governor Higter and Senator Walhee. This man Swoope is fit for the business Forney has hired bim for, if we may believe his history as given in the Huntingdon Monitor, a here paper published in his native town. We will probably lay before our read-create the life and resum-kolds doing of this Radical spouter, if he continues his above of better men.

It is very remarkable that the exthis social affliction in our midst, says:

It is very remarkable that the exclergyman can soldom make a speech without villifying Messrs. Bigler and counties: Wallace, who, we can assure him, never refer to him or give him the least attention whatever. The "coffe colored naturalization papers" also trouble Mr. Swoope "muchly." The records in the Prothonotary's office is this place and at Huntingdon, show conclusively how well he is adapted to the perpetration of legal and moral fraud; and the yelp he sets up, and the slanders he retails about his neighbors, are for the purpose of covering his own crimes

A Sound Democrat.

The people in the 17th Congressional district, (composed of the coanties of Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon and Mifflin,) are waging a vigorous campaign. The Democrats have, with in blue," and will no doubt be elected it the following articles: over D. J. Morrell, the present "loyal" member, who during the war romained at home, playing the coward and sneak, and who, since he has been in the Rump, has given all his time and talents to the niggor, and bellowed "tariff!" "tariff!" until he has become hoarse. His record would seem as though there were but two things worthy the attention of this samp at home Wide-a-wake Represent election of Col. Linton will give the white people of that district a Repre-President Seymour a warm friend and an able defender.

"The Radical claim that Grant's tacitumity is an evidence of his greatness. We don't know but they have a biblical parallel for the assertion. That great Radical so intimately associated with Bataass, spoke had once?"

Peace or War."

Such is the caption of a long edito ial in a late number of that refined and truthful (!) journal, the Christian Advocate. Until we read the article we had set down the unscrupulous Grow, Chairman of the Disunion State Committee, as the greatest liar of the age, and last week so posted him; but we now ask his pardon for charging him with being the author of a first class falsehood against the Democratic party. The article in question fully xonerates Mr. Grow from being the author of the slander he retailed in the shape of an address. His effusion was the second edition, as the extracts below, taken from the Christian [what blasphemy] Advocate, fully prove the mind Mount Vernon. A song little editor of this Ishmaelite publication to be the author of the slander. Rend what the white-livered hypocrite asys:

Four years ago the National Convention of the Democratic party pronounced the war for the maintenance of the Union, "a failure," and demanded an immediate restoration of peace. The peace their sparation from the Union—for on so other terms all they demanded and were fighting for—their sparation from the Union—for on so other terms were they willing to make peace. The people of the byal States declined the proposed peace polley, and reinstated in power the nativitant declared in favor of peace to be achieved by the sword and based upon theory. Four eventual years have passed even the country, and again the people are called upon to choose a President and Congress, and, in so deling in determine the future governmental policy of the nation; and strangely enough, now as then, the parties are divided upon questions of peace and war.

But now the party that asked for peace, when it implied not merely the hamiliation of the nation, but rather its dissolution, proposes to reinaugarate meeting war. In formal resolve the lain Democratic Sations Convention declared the work a reconstruction and the governments hately matter ted in the Southern States to be "revolutionary, unconstitutional, and void." This declaration was one of the most violent of the southerd rebols—and of the most violent what the white-livered hypocrite says:

A fine grove of theient trees surrounds the house, affording an inviting shade, while walks and drives are abundant without materially encroaching upon the usefulness of the soil. The house is furnished in Reeping with its own outward appearance, its surroundings, and the well-known tastes and characters of its occupants. An air of re-fined comfort pervades the whole. From the verandih a view is obtained well worth a lorg journey to enjoy. Down the green slope and across the rich meadows of the Mohawk Valley, all covered at this time with toiling farmers bastening to secure the over-abundant crop of hay, taking in the entire city of Utica, and all its sur-roundings, stretching far away or down the Mohawk, the view is finally lost in the blue distance far up the picturesque Chenango valley, the opening to which is directly opposite."
