THE JUDGESHIP .- The Judicial Conference was in session at this place last week, and was balloting as we went to press. On Wednesday evening the Centre and Clinton Conferees packed their traps and started back to Bellefonte, without making a nominstion-our delegates refusing to follow them any longer. The only thing we are really surprised at is, that our Conferees remained so long with those Legislative bummers, because, upon learning the attitude they assumed toward the people, we were satisfied that no nomination could be made until "things" were "made right." A more selfish, unreasonable set of men than those from Centre, we never met

Albert Richardson has written a Life of Grant, in which he calls him "a gentleman of the Lincoln school." Well, as Lincoln said of himselt, in a debate with Donglas, "I am not a gentleman, and never expect to be," Grant is set down as no gentleman, at the colleman, and never expect to be," Grant is set down as no gentleman, at when he called on Lincoln at the White House, he sat with one shoe off, fingering his toes, while engaged in conversation. That is Dincoln's school of a gentleman.
