

Merchant Tailors.
SOMETHING NEW IN SHAW'S ROW.
FRANK & STOUGHTON,
MERCHANT TAILORS
Market Street, Clearfield, Pa.
HAYING opened their new establishment in Shaw's Row, at the foot of the post office, and having just returned from the eastern cities with a large assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Beaver, and all kinds of Goods for men and boys' wear, are now prepared to make up to order CLOTHING in the latest styles, and in the most workmanlike manner. Special attention given to custom work, and cutting-out for men and boys. We offer great bargains to customers, and warrant entire satisfaction. A liberal share of public patronage is solicited. Call and see our goods.
M. A. FRANK
1017-17 (1815) E. R. L. STOUGHTON.
H. BRIDGE
MERCHANT TAILOR,
(Stores over door east of Clearfield House.)
Market Street, Clearfield, Pa.
KREPS on hand a full assortment of Gent's Furnishing Goods, such as Shirts, Linen and Woolen Underwear, Drawers, Socks, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hats, Umbrellas, &c., in great variety. Of Fine Goods he keeps the Best Cloths of all "Shades and Colors," such as Black, Double of the very best make; Fancy Cassimeres, in great variety, also, French Cheviots, Cheviots, Scotch, and English, overcoating. All of which will be sold cheap for Cash, and made up according to the latest styles by experienced workmen.
Also Agent for Clearfield county for L. M. Singer & Co's. celebrated Sewing Machines.
Nov. 1, 1863. H. BRIDGE.

Dry Goods, Groceries, &c.
NEW STOCK!
Spring Goods!
Spring Goods!
Spring Goods!
AT THE
KEYSTONE STORE
THE MOST COMPLETE STOCK
Ever brought to this market.
Dress of Dress Goods, Trimmings, Notions, Hosiery, Gloves, Fancy Goods, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Window Shades, Wall Paper, Carpet Chains, Toilet Cases, Umbrellas, Parasols, Shoes, &c., &c., are invited to examine.
H. BRIDGE
MERCHANT TAILOR,
(Stores over door east of Clearfield House.)
Market Street, Clearfield, Pa.
KREPS on hand a full assortment of Gent's Furnishing Goods, such as Shirts, Linen and Woolen Underwear, Drawers, Socks, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hats, Umbrellas, &c., in great variety. Of Fine Goods he keeps the Best Cloths of all "Shades and Colors," such as Black, Double of the very best make; Fancy Cassimeres, in great variety, also, French Cheviots, Cheviots, Scotch, and English, overcoating. All of which will be sold cheap for Cash, and made up according to the latest styles by experienced workmen.
Also Agent for Clearfield county for L. M. Singer & Co's. celebrated Sewing Machines.
Nov. 1, 1863. H. BRIDGE.

J. B. GRAHAM & SONS,
MARKET STREET,
CLEARFIELD, PA.
THE subscribers having entered into partnership for the purpose of carrying on the business of Merchandising, new offer
A Good
And rare opportunity to the citizens of Clearfield and adjoining counties to buy store goods at wholesale or retail prices, that will astonish the uninitiated. Their goods will be particularly selected to suit this market. Every lady will, therefore, call the attention of her Husband
To this fact, because this branch of our business will receive special attention, and everything needed in a well regulated household will at all times be found in stock. Our stock of DRY GOODS shall not be surpassed, either in quality or price, and will embrace, in part, a Plethora of every style, Gingham and Lawn of every quality, Muslin of every grade, De Laine adapted to the taste of the old and young; and every article of any kind of goods that sell in this section.
Guaranteed
To be as represented, and warranted to give satisfaction. We have a splendid assortment of Alpaca, black, white, and in colors; Armes, Silks, and in short all the newest styles in the market. We desire this fact to become known.
To Every
Person—man, woman, child, physician, mechanic, farmer, laborer, woman's rights man, or any other man in the county—
Young
Or old, rich or poor, high or low, who will favor us with a call. With our new and extensive stock you gentlemen can please the most fastidious
Lady,
By just dropping in and getting a nice dress pattern, lace suit, kid gloves—or by doing that which is better; give her a well-filled parcel, and she will find good and paying investments in shawls, ribbons, gloves, hosiery, or any other household necessities.
And
In addition to what we have already enumerated, we sell all kinds of GENTLEMEN'S WEAR—such as Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinets, Hats, Boots and Shoes, &c., besides,
A Nice
Assortment of Made-up CLOTHING for Men and Boys, manufactured out of the very best material, which will sell for each or exchange for country produce at prices which will astonish both husband and Wife
We are now largely engaged in buying and selling SQUARE TIMBER and manufactured LUMBER, and will give the branch of business special attention, and make it an object
To Every
One who has Lumber to sell to deal with us. We shall also keep constantly on hand a general assortment of GROCERIES and HARDWARE, which we will sell at exceedingly low prices. We also keep a full assortment of QUEENSWARE. This department will be kept full and complete, and every
Young Man
Or maiden who contemplates housekeeping, will find it advantageous to come and trade with us. We are so situated, and from long experience in the business, so well acquainted with the wants and necessities of this community, that we feel satisfied if every man and woman
In Clearfield County
makes it a point to buy their goods from us, we can please them both as to quality and price. Therefore, come along and buy your
DRY-GOODS, GROCERIES,
PROVISIONS,
Queensware, Hardware,
BOOTS & SHOES, HATS & CAPS,
Ready-Made Clothing,
And everything you need to render yourselves and families comfortable, from
JAS. B. GRAHAM & SONS,
1017-17 (1815) E. R. L. STOUGHTON.
H. BRIDGE
MERCHANT TAILOR,
(Stores over door east of Clearfield House.)
Market Street, Clearfield, Pa.
KREPS on hand a full assortment of Gent's Furnishing Goods, such as Shirts, Linen and Woolen Underwear, Drawers, Socks, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hats, Umbrellas, &c., in great variety. Of Fine Goods he keeps the Best Cloths of all "Shades and Colors," such as Black, Double of the very best make; Fancy Cassimeres, in great variety, also, French Cheviots, Cheviots, Scotch, and English, overcoating. All of which will be sold cheap for Cash, and made up according to the latest styles by experienced workmen.
Also Agent for Clearfield county for L. M. Singer & Co's. celebrated Sewing Machines.
Nov. 1, 1863. H. BRIDGE.

Banks.
Clearfield County Bank.
THE Clearfield County Bank, incorporated under the laws of this State, on May 12, 1863, and its stock is owned by the subscribers, who will continue the banking business at the same place, as private bankers, under the firm name of the "Clearfield County Bank." We are responsible for the debts of the Bank, and will pay its notes on demand at the counter. Deposits received and interest paid when money is left for a fixed time. Paper discounted at six per cent as heretofore. Our personal responsibility is pledged for all deposits received and business transacted. A continuance of the liberal patronage of the business men of the county is respectfully solicited. As President, Cashier and Officers of the Clearfield County Bank, we require the notes of said Bank to be presented for redemption.
JAS. T. LEONARD, RICHARD SHAW,
W.M. FORSTER, JAS. B. GRAHAM,
A. K. WRIGHT, G. L. REED,
W. M. WALLACE,
The business of the Bank will be conducted by John M. Adams, Esq., as Cashier. (Jan 29, '56)

THE REPUBLICAN.
CLEARFIELD, PA.
THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1, 1863.
Terms of Subscription.
If paid in advance, or within three months, $2.00
If paid after three and before six months, $3.00
If paid after the expiration of six months, $4.00
Mr. T. H. WILSON, our Reman, is authorized to receive for money paid into the office on account of subscription, advertising, job work, &c., in our absence.
GEO. T. GOODLAND,
Editor and Proprietor.

MASS MEETINGS.
The County Committee has concluded to hold Democratic meetings in October at the following places:
For Becarrin, Guilch, Jordan and Woodward, at GLEN HOPE, on Thursday, the 6th.
For Burnside, Chest and N. Washington, at NEW WASHINGTON, on Friday, the 8th.
For Ferguson, Lumber City and Penn, at LUMBER CITY, on Saturday, the 10th; and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.
All in these localities, who love their country and wish to hear the truth, will be present on these occasions. We hope our friends will make the necessary arrangements for a good turnout.
These meetings will be addressed by Ex-Governor Bigler, Dr. T. J. Boyer, William M. McCullough, Esq., and Colonel Walter Barrett.
MEETING AT SHAWVILLE.—The citizens of Goshen, Girard and Bradford are hereby notified that a Democratic meeting will be held at Shawville, on Tuesday evening, October 6th. Dr. Boyer and Israel Test, Esq., will be present to discuss the issues now before the people.
ANOTHER RALLY.—The Mount Joy Seymour and Blair Club propose to have a grand rally, at Mount Joy School House, on Monday evening, October 6th, at 7 o'clock. Let there be a full turnout on that occasion. Lawrence is awake. Dr. Boyer and Israel Test, Esq., will be present to address their fellow citizens.
POLE RAISING.—We are requested to state that the Democrats of Bloomington and vicinity intend to raise a huge pole and flag on Saturday afternoon.
MEETING AT WOODLAND.—There will be a Democratic Club meeting at Woodland, on Monday evening next.
MEETING AT WOLF RUN.—The Democrats of the lower end of Lawrence township will hold a meeting at Wolf Run School House, on Thursday evening.
Spokers will be present at these meetings, to address the people on the issues of the day.
FURS.—Ladies and Children's Fancy Furs, at John Fairin's Popular Fur Emporium, 718 Arch St., Philadelphia. Stock large. Read his advertisement, and give him a call when in the city.
LOSE.—On Sunday evening, between the Court House and the Presbyterian parsonage, a lady's large breastpin (coral and gold). The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.
A Good School with a thorough, efficient teacher is a luxury which we do not always have in our town; but we are happy to say that we have it now in the Academy under its present accomplished principal. Let parents make a note of this.
A FAIR.—We learn that a fancy fair and festival will be held in the Baptist church, in Curwensville, on Saturday, the 10th. All who wish to partake of a grand dinner and cast their vote into the treasury of the Lord, are respectfully invited to attend on that occasion.
ASSESSMENTS.—Saturday, the 3d of October, is the last day when assessments can be made in time to vote at the State election. We advise that in every district committees be chosen to see that no Democrat loses his vote on account of a failure to be assessed. The Assessors are required to add the name of any one who applies in person to be assessed.
UNION TOWNSHIP MEETING.—We are requested to state that a Democratic meeting will be held at WELT'S School House, in Union township, on Wednesday evening, October 7th, at 7 o'clock. Let Union awake, for the sake of the Union, and put herself in trim for the purpose of enjoying the grand Democratic victory on the 13th. Israel Test, Esq., and Colonel Walter Barrett will address the meeting.
COURT.—Judge McEnally and his associates, Wilhelm and Clyde, called Court at 10 o'clock on Monday morning, and at once proceeded to business. Up to going to press nothing but Common-law cases were being tried. The sudden transfer of the new Judge from the Bar to the Bench does not seem to discommodate him in the least. He manifests tact and executive ability in dispatching the public business equal to any of his predecessors.
ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS!—We hope our friends will give the Assessor's List, which is now posted up in every election district in the county, a thorough examination, and see whether their own names are on it, as well as those of their neighbors. Let no one be so foolish as to lose his vote through so simple a remedy. When the name of a voter is not found on the list, go to the Assessor at once and have it put on, unless you possess a receipt for paying taxes assessed within two years.

THE INDIAN WAR.
Savage Fight in Kanawha-Pitt Soldiers Attacked by 500 Wounded Indians Nearly Half the Whites Killed and Wounded.
FORT WALKER, September 23.—Two scouts from Colonel Forsyth's command, who have been scouring the country towards the head waters of the Republican River, arrived last night. They left Forsyth's camp on Dry Fork of the Republican River, fifty miles north of here, four nights ago. They report that on the morning of the 17th a party of Indians tried to run off a portion of some stock, and half an hour later, 300 or 400 appeared on the bluffs two miles off, and made a dash for the camp. Colonel Forsyth having only fifty men, crossed them to a small island, and the Indians commenced firing on them, which they kept up steadily and fast until eleven o'clock, after which only scattering shots until three o'clock, when they again opened a steady fire and increased their force, being estimated at seven hundred. The fight was kept up in this manner until sundown, when the Indians made a charge to take the camp, but were unsuccessful. They then howled and kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which time the scouts left for Fort Wallace to obtain assistance. They were obliged to crawl two miles on their hands and knees through the Indians to get out. At daylight they heard firing back at the camp seven miles away, and occasional shots all day. The casualties are: Lieutenant Fowler, kept up the fight until 11 o'clock, at which