A. Twelve per cent.

Q. How does this affect small property holders and men without capitai?

A. They can borrow no money from any of this horse, whose unprecedented power and speed gave such promise of a brilliant career, with great regret. In Mr. Bonner's hands he has had the best of care, and though horsemen were prepared to hear of great speed when his powers should again be tested, yet the announcement of his having trotted a mile in 2 m.
