HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know

How you may save your dollars;
The way to do it I will show,
If you will read what follows.
A man who lived not far from here,

Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That aquandered all he made.

I met him onen. Bays he, "My friend, I look throud bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up snough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you?
Fill tell you where to go
To got a suit that's sound and cheap:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co. He took what little he had saved, And went to Reissavelu & Brothers', And there he got a handsome spil, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so wall, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't sat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside. His good success, with chaerful emile,
He gladly tells to all,
If you'd cave money, go and buy
Four clothes at—
REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL.
