Pittsburg Produce and General Market.

[From the Pittsburg Commercial, Nov. 3.]

During the past week trade has not been very active and prices have changed but little. Flour declined early in the week, and at the close prices seemed weak and for a still lower range. Flour is from $3@4 ₱ barrel lower than at the corresponding time last year, and the tendency of other leading articles of subsistence is toward a lower range. We quote as follows, which are the current wholesale store prices:

APPLES—The market is well supplied, and prices range from $2@4 ₱ barrel, as to quality.

BUTTER—Choice table is scarce and wanted at 38@40c. ₱ lb. Choice packed commands 30@35c. Low grades are plenty and nominal.

BACON, LARD, ETC.—There is very little old stock in market, and there is but little demand for it. Packing will not commence here yet for some time. We quote shoulders at 13½@13½c.; sides, 15½@16c.; sugar cured hams, 20c.; lard, 19½ ₱ lb, and mess pork at $31 ₱ bbl.

CRANBERRIES—We quote Jersey cultivated at $17@19 per bbl.

CHEESE—Are in good demand, and we quote the market firm for Ohio Goshen at 15c.; New York Goshen 20c.; Factory 17@18c.; Hamburg 16@17c.; Ohio Sweitzer, 20c.; Limburg 20c., and Western Reserve, at 15@16c. ₱ lb.

DRIED FRUITS—Sales of new peaches, halves, at 16@17c. and quarters at 13@14c. ₱ lb. We quote dried apples at 9@10c. ₱ lb.

FEATHERS—Sales of choice goose feathers at 90@95 ₱ lb.

MILL-FEED—The mill prices are for screenings, $1; ship stuff, $1 30, and middlings $2 20.

POTATOES—Irish potatoes are in good demand, with sales of common qualities at 85@90c. and Lake Shore peachblows at 95@$1. Baltimore Sweets we quote at from $4 75 to $5, and Jerseys are very firm at $5 50@5 75.

ONIONS—Sales of choice at $2@2 25 ₱ bush.

SALT—Dull, sales of Allegheny river brands at $1 75 by the car load, and $1 90@2 in store.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand and firm at $2 30. Timothy seed is dull and in good supply, quoted at $2 25@2 50. Nothing doing in clover seed, and no established prices. We quote it nominally at $8 per bushel.

FLOUR—Market dull and irregular. Sales are mostly confined to small lots for supplying the local trade. We quote from store choice spring wheat flour $8 50@8 75; good spring wheat flour $8@8 25; and winter wheat flour, in sacks, $7 50@9 75, and in barrels $9 75@10 per bbl. St. Louis brands $12 25@12 75 ₱ bbl. The Pearl Mill prices for their brands, made of the best wheat, are as follows: Extra family flour in bbls. at $9 90 and in sacks $9 60 ₱ bbl.; double extra family in bbls. $10 40, and in sacks $10 10. The City Mills quote prices as follows: Extra family in barrels $9 50 and in sacks at $9 20 per bbl.; double extra family in barrels $10 30 and in sacks $10 per barrel.

GRAIN—The market is quiet and prices to some extent nominal. The receipts are fair and a decline is looked for. Outside of the mills there is very little doing in wheat. Prices of spring wheat are not quotable, as we have no sales reported. Red winter is dull at $1 95@1 99, with an occasional sale of extra at a shade higher. There is no white wheat offering. Sales of three cars of new ear corn at 95c. per bushel. Old ear and shelled is nominally $1 10 in depot. Oats are dull at 65@66c. from first hands. Rye is dull at $1 40 per bush. from first hands. Barley is dull and nominal at $2 10@2 15 for spring, and for fall $2 20 ₱ bush.

TOBACCO.—Cavendish, Navy, Spun Roll, Fine Cut, Flounder, Congress, Smoking, Segars and Snuff, at nov4-1m J. P. KRATZER'S.

GRAIN WANTED. — WHEAT, RYE, CORN, BUCKWHEAT & OATS, Wanted, for which the highest market price will be paid, by J. P. KRATZER,

THE ELECTION.—We are compelled to go to press on Wednesday morning, and are therefore without any returns from the county or State upon which to base a result. In this borough we have lost ten votes, while we gained but one in Lawrence township.

Splendid stock of Ladies'underwear, just received at Wm. Reed & Co's.

All the latest magazines and newspapers, besides books, paper and envelopes, for sale at the postoffice.

We notice that Mr. Reed's Grist Mill, situated in this borough, which has been undergoing repairs for some time past, is again in operation.

NOTICE.—All persons having books belonging to the M. E. Sunday School, will confer a favor by returning them at once to the undersigned.

2t GEO. W. RHEEM, Sup't.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found an article, taken from the Day Book, entitled "What is Negro Freedom?" As the subject relates to the interests and destiny of the two races, we hope our readers will give the matter some reflection.

A PRESENT.—We understand that the Teachers present at the Institute held at Curwensville last week, before separating, presented Mr. Geo. W. Snyder, County Superintendent, with a splendid silver hunting case watch, as a token of respect for his zeal in the interest of Common Schools.

It is none of our business, we confess, but we hope the proprietors of the Radical newspaper published at Bellefonte will stop lengthening the title of their journal. They either have a big office, or they must go into the street to turn their head. We have not got italics enough to give the name in full, and will, therefore, be debarred from quoting from its "loil" columns.

PROF. SHOEMAKER.—It was our pleasure to be in the Court House on Thursday evening last, to listen to the readings of this gentlemen. These readings are highly essential, and go far to elevate society, but they are entirely new to three-fourths of a backwoods audience. Mr. Shoemaker acquitted himself well, and we hope he will embrace the first opportunity to repeat his readings in this place.

NOTICE.—The Lecture Room of the new M. E. Church in this place will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God on Sunday, Nov. 15th. The Rev. Wm. Harden, of Baltimore city, will preach the dedicatory sermon, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Other ministers of distinction are expected be present. The public are invited.

2t A. W. GUYER, Pastor.

FIRES.—We learn that the barn of Mr. M. M. Foot, of Beccaria township, was, on Wednesday night, consumed by fire. The loss of Mr. Foot will reach $2,000.

Williams' School House, No. 4, in the same township, was burned on Thursday night.

The barn was burned through the carelessness of a teamster, who left a candle burn in the stable and failed to put it out when he left. The destruction of the school house was evidently the work of an incendiary.

BOROUGH IMPROVEMENTS.—We are pleased to chronicle the fact that the borough authorities seem to appreciate the wants and necessities of our municipal corporation. They have now done what should have been done long ago—employed competent engineers to properly locate the streets and establish their grade, preparatory to their general improvement. Let the Burgess and Town Council continue in the good work now commenced, and not cease until all our streets are properly graded and McAdamized, or laid with Nicholson pavement, (whichever, upon due investigation, shall prove to be the cheapest.) Market and Second streets should be thus improved during the next summer, and as many more as the wisdom of the proper officers would suggest. In order to accomplish this, let them borrow twenty thousand dollars, (or so much as may be necessary,) for ten or twenty years, and only assess tax enough to pay the interest. We have for years been paying more money than this, and the streets are now in as bad a condition as they were five years ago. Half the money expended in improving the streets during the past ten years, has been literally thrown away — because the improvements made were not of a durable character. Ten thousand dollars, properly applied, will go far towards improving our streets; yet the interest on this sum would be only six hundred dollars, less than two dollars for every voter; and if our borough continues to increase in material wealth and population for the next five years as it has done in the past two, the tax will not be fifty cents per voter, and the streets improved—which ought to be some gratification to our denizens. We will refer to this matter again.

SAD ACCIDENT.—It is with mingled feelings of sorrow and pain that we are called upon to record the sudden and shocking death of our neighbor and friend, Robert Hanna, late Sheriff of Clinton county. On Monday morning, in company with Sheriff Smith and others, he left his home in good health and excellent spirits, to engage in the exciting sport of hunting deer, on the hills surrounding Queen's Run. Wednesday morning he started to the woods with his dog and gun, and about 4 o'clock, p. m., was found by his companions cold in the embrace of death, evidently having accidentally shot himself. Of the full particulars we know nothing. Everybody appears too sad, a feeling of general depression sits heavily upon the hearts of all who knew him.

Robert Hanna was well and generally known in this community. He served as Sheriff of the county for three years, and made a most excellent and obliging officer. As a citizen he was beloved and respected. Kind and genial in his disposition he had many warm friends and few enemies.

To his heart-broken wife and interesting little children, we extend our condolence, in this, their hour of sore affliction. May kind friends console and sympathize with his family, at this time, when their hearts are bleeding from wounds made by news so terrible as the sad, sad death of their husband and father. Poor Sheriff Hanna!—Clinton Democrat.

Mr. Hanna was well known to many citizens of this county.

EXECUTED.—Thos. McCarthy, convicted at the August term of the Venango county court of the murder of David Barry, was hung on Friday last, in the jail yard at Franklin. The Spectator says:

"Since his conviction, up to the eve of his execution, the condemned man exhibited the most wonderful indifference and even recklessness. He heard his death-warrant read, the least concerned himself of all that were present. He manifested but little, if any, idea of a future state, and persisted in asserting his innocence of the murder. As time wore away, however, he expressed a willingness to see a spiritual adviser and for a few days was visited by Rev. J. H. Tagg, of the M. E. Church, of this city. Subsequently, and within a few days of his execution, he desired the services of a Priest, and Rev. Fathers Coady, Madigan and Docker attended him. These faithful Priests remained with him day and night, up to the last moment—Fathers Docker and Madigan attending him upon the scaffold and administering the last rites to the soul so soon to be ushered into the presence of its Maker.

The morning of the execution, and not until then, M'Carty acknowledged his guilt and the justice of his sentence. His demeanor from that moment seemed to change, and he appeared quietly reconciled to his fate."

"In accordance with the act of February 3, 1868, all cotton imported from foreign countries from and after the first proximo will be exempt from import duty.—Legal exchange.

This is another new feature in Radical protection. This "trooly loil" party has for several years been collecting a tax of two cents per pound on cotton raised in this country, and in accordance with the above act foreign cotton is admitted duty free. Suppose these scalliwags would impose a tax upon wheat, corn, or any other Northern product, and then admit the foreign article free! What a howl would go up from every "loil" throat for "protection." But because cotton is a Southern product no one seems to notice the outrage.

A fresh stock of Ladies' Hoods, just received at Wm. Reed & Co's.

Our friends in Decatur contradict the statement in the Journal, to the effect that a "nigger" voted the Democratic ticket in that township at the October election. One says: "It is a straight up and down lie. There is nothing in this township that looks niggerish but votes the Radical ticket.

NEW PAPER.—We are in receipt of the first number of a new paper published at Philipsburg, Centre county, by J. C. Dutcher and Ed. H. Ellsworth, called "The Philipsburg Journal." It is neutral in politics. We wish it success, but would advise its proprietors to take one side or the other if they wish to survive.—Tyrone Herald.

"The case is not a dangerous one, Mr. Herald, and living in a civilized community we think there will be no doubt about our "surviving." But which side do you mean, the back side or the front side?"—Journal.

Democratic "side," of course. The Herald man speaks from experience. He knows the mistake he made.

STEAM FLOURING MILL.—The extensive steam flouring mill in this village, erected by Mr. E. Perks, is now in full operation. It is just what has been needed in this vicinity; and will be of great benefit to the lumbermen and farmers of this section. Connected with the mill is a splendid stationary steam Fire Engine, which would effectually extinguish an outbreak of fire in either his mill or residence, it also supplies the reservoir of the Penn'a. R. R. Co. with water. If there were fifty feet added to the 250 feet which he already has it would be the means of saving the buildings on and near the corner of Front and Pine streets in case of fire.—Philipsburg Journal.

Gen. Cassius Fairchild, United States Marshal for Wisconsin, and a brother of Gov. Fairchild, died at Milwaukee, Saturday morning, from a wound received at the battle of Shiloh. He was married on his death bed to a young lady of that city.

Had There Been no Republican Party.

"If there had been no Republican Party, there would to-day not be the baleful shadow over the Republic."—SCHUYLER COLFAX.

Had there been no Republican Party, five hundred thousand true-hearted, vigorous American citizens would not now be sleeping in their eternal sleep.

Had there been no Republican Party, one third of our sovereign States would not to-day be laid waste, its masters slaves, its slaves masters, and future full of crushing disaster.

Had there been no Republican Party, ten millions of American people would never have been arrayed against the country that gave them birth, and the Constitution under which they had lived and prospered.

Had there been no Republican Party, "the baleful shadow of slavery" would ere now, have given way to the light of freedom, brought about by peaceful means.

Had there been no Republican Party, a once happy and prosperous people would not now be burdened to the earth with taxation and the heaviest national debt of the world.

Had there been no Republican Party, hundreds of thousands of American citizens would not to-day be at the point of beggary, distressed for the present and alarmed for the future.

Had there been no Republican Party, ten millions of people, bone of our bone, and blood of our blood, having the same ancestry, would not be estranged from the Government, nor be the subjects of a hate and tyrannical oppression unknown in the annals of the civilized world.

Had there been no Republican Party, we should not see the Constitution overridden and openly set at defiance; the co-ordinate branches of our Government acting in deadly hostility, and men, whom the people have honored with high position, rioting on the fruits of public plunder, disgracing the positions they hold, by conduct that would damn the public men of any semi-civilized nation on the face of the earth.

Had there been no Republican Party, the groveling, brutish African would not be clothed with rights and privileges he knows not how to exercise, or be arrayed with feelings of fiendish animosity and hatred against those who raised him out of a state of barbarism to a civilization unknown to his race elsewhere on the face of the globe.

Had there been no Republican Party, we should not see our whole people demoralized, our Democratic institutions overthrown, or sadly changed, and a once happy country tottering to its final overthrow and ruin.

Had we never known a Republican Party, the United States would to-day be the happiest, the grandest, and the most enlightened nation on the face of the earth, instead of the distracted, demoralized, degenerated, and corrupted people that we are. Radicalism has cursed America.—Exchange.

ONE SHALL BE TAKEN AND THE OTHER LEFT.—Two persons, one a discharged Federal soldier and the other a negro, were recently tried and convicted in a Virginia court for a most outrageous crime, and sentenced to be hung on Friday last. On the day of the execution, the military Governor of the State, one Welles, an intense Radical, sent a commutation of the sentence in the case of the negro to imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for life. The white man was hung. Both were equally guilty. There were no extenuating circumstances in one case which did not apply to the other. Yet the negro's life is saved—the white Union soldier's life is sacrificed. This is a fair sample of Radical justice and fair dealing.

When the drop fell which ushered the poor white man into the presence of his Maker, a negro convict who was in a cell near by, was heard to exclaim: "There's another d—n Yankee gone." Welles, the so-called Governor of Virginia, is an officer in the United States army and a Northern man. He selects as the fittest subject of his clemency the negro in preference to the Union soldier. Suppose a Democratic Governor had been in office and had selected the white instead of the black man for Executive clemency, what a roar the Radicals would have put up against the partiality of such an act. Yet, we find not a word of remonstrance or condemnation against Governor Welles' negro partiality.

HUSBAND POISONERS.—Within two weeks, the country has been startled by two cases of poisoning. Mrs. Martha Rowland and a young man named Harry Weaver, residing at Hagerstown, Maryland, were lodged in jail at that place, on Thursday last, charged with the murder of Andrew Rowland, (husband of the former,) with poison.

The other case occurred at Butler, in this State, where, on Friday, Mrs. Phoebe Shugart and Joseph Martin were committed to jail, Mrs. Shugart being charged, upon the finding of the Coroner's Inquest, with the murder of her husband, Jacob Shugart, by poison, and the man Martin with being accessory before the fact. The fate of these four parties is easily foretold.

EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF MULES.—We learn that through the agency of E. L. Huffman, Esq., two pair of draft mules, suitable to work in harness were sold to Mr. Charles Seidler, tes, representative of P. Lorillard, of New York, for the sum of $1,500 cash—one pair sold for $800, and the other pair for $700—for the use of Mr. Lorillard in New York in receiving and forwarding the products of his snuff and tobacco manufactory. We also learn that Mr. Seidler has offered $1,000 for another pair of mules similar or equal to one exhibited to him yesterday. These are the highest prices ever obtained for mules, even in Kentucky, which takes the lead of all other States for fine stock.—Louisville Courier.

AN AGED VOTER.—George Labar, in Monroe county, now 105 years of age, voted the Democratic ticket solid on the 13th, as usual. Mr. Labar is hearty and in tolerable good health yet, has the use of his mind and limbs as though he was going to live many years yet. Like an old forest tree he has withstood the blasts of over one hundred winters, and amidst the turmoil of factions, stood like a solitary invincible sentinel faithful to the creed of our fathers, of whom he is the only one remaining. He voted at the first Presidential election, and the Democratic ticket at every one since.—Young men, here is a lesson for you; follow the example of ripe years, a century of personal experience and a sound judgment.
