HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

THE times are bard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who fixed not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I link thread hear and rough; Pen tried to get myself a seit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you?
I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's round and cheep:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Raisenstein & Brothers', And there he gut a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

For half he paid to others.

Now he is bone, he locks so well,
And their effect is such,
That when they take their daily meal,
They den't eat half as much.

And now he finde on Saturday night,
With all their wants supplied,
The he has money left to spand,
And some to lay acids.
