THE REPUBLICAN.

CLEARFIELD, PA. THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 24, 1887. Terms of Subscription. The Republican is published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays, for $2.00 per annum in advance. Single copies 5 cents.

Public Venue.—On the premises of Mr. A. C. Tate, on Saturday next, See handbills, and advertisement in this number of our paper. It will be noticed by their advertisement in this issue, that the drug store of Messrs. Hartwick & Irwin has been removed to the opposite side of Market street, near the Mansion House.

Know-Nothing Falsehood.—The following has a prominent place in the last Alleghenian. We commend it to our foreign born and Catholic readers: "The Youngstown District, in Westernmost county, contains the Catholic Monastery of St. Xavier. Its inmates are many, if not all, foreigners. They are all Catholics, and all of them are of the same nationality. They are all of the same nationality. They are all of the same nationality."

Attention!—We are requested to state that a meeting of Democrats will take place in the Arbitration Room, on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing permanently a Democratic Association. Let all attend who love the Union and free government, and who intend to labor in the interest of Democracy and the country.

A Bold Thief.—On Wednesday night last, the dwelling house of John E. Baldwin, West Bradford, was broken into, and all the silver spoons carried off. The thief was certainly a bold one, and one apparently well acquainted with the premises. The spoons were in a small drawer locked up in a book case in the dining room; on top of the drawer was a large roll of new muslin, a fine double-barrel gun stood near the book case, a watch was hanging over the wall, and several ornaments were hanging in the room. The thief opened the book case, threw the muslin to one side, took the spoons out of the drawer, and made off with them; none of the other articles were taken.—West Chester Record.

That "no prefix or affix" Democrat.—John W. Geary, has reminded the public that he wants to be governor for another term. He got one of his friends to write him a puff as a candidate for United States Senator (oh, glory!) so that he could decline that and announce himself as a candidate for re-election—all in good time. It was a nice little trick, but so very transparent and small as to excite only mirth and ridicule among his party friends. John's prospects are not so good as they were, and the probabilities are quite strong that he will have to give up living in the style of Louis the Fourteenth, in a palace gotten up a la Pompadour. Good bye, John, in prospective.—Bellefonte Watchman.

Extensive Robbery.—An extensive robbery is alleged to have been perpetrated on the mail train west, on Saturday evening last. It appears that Mr. M. H. Shannon, from Brookville, Jefferson county, got on the train at Blairsville Junction, having in his possession six thousand dollars, as follows: A Five Twenty bond of $5 for $1,000; two government notes of $1,000 each, and one of $500; in a palace gotten up a la Pompadour. Good bye, John, in prospective.—Bellefonte Watchman.

Death of Henry Sidle, Esq.—We are sorry to announce the death of Henry Sidle, Esq., which took place at Minneapolis, Minn., on the 1st instant. Mr. Sidle was well known throughout the county, having, previous to taking up his residence in Minnesota, been one of the most active men in the upper end of our county, being possessed of great energy of character. His remains were brought to Dillsburg, under the charge of his son, H. G. Sidle, for interment in the Franklin Grave Yard, at his special request. The funeral took place from the residence of Rev. Daniel Regel, in Dillsburg. His age was 77 years.—York Gazette.

Accident in the Mines.—A terrible accident occurred in the ore mines of the Cambria Iron Company, on last Saturday. It was caused by the premature explosion of a blast. Mr. John Noble, residing in Woodville, had one of his cars and one side of his face blown away, and both eyes blown out. He was incapable when taken up. It is thought he cannot survive. He has a wife and two children. He is an industrious man and an excellent citizen. Mr. David Bee, a brother-in-law to Mr. Noble, was also badly hurt, but will recover.—Johnstown Democrat.

What are Their Promises?

The Republican party promises largely; but the trouble is their promises are not to be depended on. It seems to be a point in the tactics of that party never to tell a truth when its utterance would militate against its interest. The papers of the party are filled, from day to day, with the most groundless assertions, stories of Democratic atrocities without any foundation to rest upon, and yet they have the audacity to call themselves a moral party, when the course they follow violates every moral principle and is directly antagonistic to every law that the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, or the Saviour of mankind is believed to have given.

In the case of the woman caught in the act of adultery, when she was brought before Christ, and his judgment demanded, instead of replying, "Let me alone," she wrote in the sand, "Who art thou that art set up for judgment?" His reply was, "He that is without sin among you, let him cast the first stone at her." The rebuke was deserved, and, as we learn from John 8, v. 9, v. 9, was felt by all those who had brought before him the woman for condemnation, as they left the temple without casting a stone, and the woman and the Saviour were left in the temple together.

Then Jesus, lifting himself up from his stooping posture, inquired: "Where are those thin accusers? Hath no man condemned thee?" And when she had answered: "No man, Lord," he replied, "Neither do I condemn thee; go, and sin no more." Here is a lesson for that professedly intelligent, civilized and christianized party, which holds to this day the whole South except Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware, in military and Bureaucratic subjection.

Now, we will list either of the editors of the Alleghenian $500 that not a member of the Catholic Monastery of St. Xavier voted in the election, either a native or naturalized citizen. Such stuff was would expect from Covode, a born Know-Nothing, and his tendencies, but the Alleghenian does not believe it, and ought not to publish it. It is pretty hard fare for its Catholic readers to charge that their clergy-men and religious are guilty of perjury; and violation of the election laws.—Cambria Freeman.

Secretary of State. Gen. Grant will evidently be put to his trumps to find a man in the Radical party who, by the nature of his talents, high character, and admitted political position, is fitted to be the head of his Cabinet—that is, Secretary of State. That is always the figure-head of a new Administration, and if it should be that of a small or ordinary man, the Government will commence with a woful lack of popular prestige and confidence. When one looks over the Republican party he really sees but one man who seems qualified, by his learning and antecedents, to be the Premier of the new Administration. That man, as we have already stated, is Charles Francis Adams, of Massachusetts, late Minister to England. If General Grant does not appoint him, he will be driven either into placing some political nobody, literary snob, or disagreeable fanatic in that position.

Up to this time the Secretary of State has been the best filled office in the American Government. It is grand and illustrious, a galaxy of great names in our history. Other Cabinet offices—the Presidency itself—have been discharged in their duties by inferior men, but the Secretary of State never! In that respect it enjoys a proud preeminence. Look at the bright and glorious constellation of stars which have shone in the State Department: Thomas Jefferson, Daniel Webster, James Madison, John C. Calhoun, James Monroe, James Buchanan, John Q. Adams, John M. Clayton, Henry Clay, Edward Everett, Martin Van Buren, Wm. L. Marcy, Edw. Livingston, Lewis Cass, John Forsyth, Wm. H. Seward.

These are the kind of men, a com- panner of which Gen. Grant desires to find in the organization which elected him. Where does he exist?—(See Enquirer.)

VALUABLE FARM.—The Wrightsville Star says: "Daniel L. Snyder sold to George D. Elbert, of Helicon township, York county, the one half, or 125 acres of the large farm known as the 'Snyder farm,' in West Manchester township, near York; at the rate of $210 per acre, amounting to $26,250. The buildings on this tract are superior, the house and barn are brick, and the corn house and wagon house are constructed in the most appropriate manner to answer the ends designed."

WAR RESUMED.—Reports from Arkansas state that a battle had taken place at Central Point between the militia and a company of Ku Klux, in which the latter were defeated, nine being killed and many wounded and captured. One militia man was killed. "Let us have peace."

NEWS ITEMS.

The Swedes are populating Kansas. One party is purchasing 20,000 acres. The newest trade for the fashionable world, is the bring of fruit for grand banquets. An American is driving an omnibus over the new macadamized road from Jaffa to Jerusalem. Julius, did you ever see the Catskill Mountains? No, Saunbo, but I've seen the cats kill mice. It is stated that the widow of the late President James K. Polk is in straitened circumstances. What is the difference between a bill and a pill? One's hard to get up, and the other's hard to get down. What is the slight difference between a warrior and an infant? The one is in, and the other under arms. Young men are as apt to think themselves wise enough, as drunken men are to think themselves sober enough. The Scranton Democrat runs up the name of Hon. Asa Packer as its choice of a Democratic candidate for next Governor.

It takes a $10,000 initiation fee to enter the regular board of the New York Exchange. The fee heretofore was $5,000. James Curtis, under arrest for horse stealing at Johnsonville, Tenn., was taken from custody Sunday night by a mob, and shot. He was a bad man. Gen. James Shields, the hero and patriot, has been elected to Congress from one of the Missouri districts, by a majority of 588—a Democratic gain. In Australia they have fenced in 10,000 acres where ostriches are kept, and it is found that the feathers of a full grown bird will sell for $100 a year. Down in Tennessee the negroes voted labels of a "Rat and Roach Exterminator," being told that the picture of a rat on the paper stood for ratification. The Louisville Journal says the Ku-Klux is the last agonies of delirium tremens. It represents the snakes, scorpions and hazards of a diseased radical imagination. As long as the Radicals could keep Andy Johnson drunk, he was as good a Radical as any of them, but as soon as he got sober he returned to his old love—Democracy. The Chillicothe (Ohio) Gazette says that two citizens of that place have, one twenty-three, and the other twenty-five living children—each man having now his third wife. "Doesticks"—the original of that name—is police-comptroller for Brick Pomeroy's New York Democrat. His reports in the Tribune, some years ago, gave him a wide reputation. Dunbar township, the alleged "fraudulent district" in Fayette county, gives Seymour the same majority accorded to Hon. H. D. Foster. This is poor comfort for the old "Alligator's" charge of fraud. A Montgomery county (Ohio) farmer, who wished to give a lot for a church and burial ground, had the deed made out "to God Almighty, His heirs and assigns forever," and the deed is so recorded. The Washington Review notices the vote of George Kuntz, of that borough, who cast his sixtieth ballot there at the last election. He walked over two hundred miles to cast his first vote for Jefferson. Gen. Milroy, whose "exploits" will long be remembered in the Valley of Virginia, was a candidate lately for County Treasurer of Carroll county, Indiana, and defeated. He ought to be in a penitentiary. A carpet bugger now in the South wrote to his father in the North, "Come down here, father, mighty mean me get office here now. You could be elected United States Senator without trouble."

A gentleman and lady became acquainted with each other on the steamer Itasca, running between Keokuk and St. Louis, on the 12th, and on the fourteenth, before leaving the boat they were married. "The Boston Journal breaks out:—Massachusetts, 70,000 majority. Match 'em! Well, Kentucky, 50,000 Democratic majority. That is 30,000 better. That Kentucky vote distances the Massachusetts jacksass just 20,000. General Grant took a walk along Chestnut street, Philadelphia, on the 20th, visiting Independence Hall and Square. He was recognized, and a throng gathered, but after some delay he succeeded in flanking his admirers and returned to the Continent.
