The Republican.

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 24, 1869.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.—In obedience to the desire of a majority thereof, the Democratic State Committee are requested to meet at Bolton's Hotel, Harrisburg, on Tuesday, the 30th day of March, 1869, at 7½ o'clock, p. m., to fix the time of holding the Democratic State Convention.

WM. A. WALLACE, Chairman.
DAVID CALDWELL, Secretary.

STATE ELECTIONS.—The political campaign of 1869 will open with the following State elections: New Hampshire, March 9; Connecticut, April 5; Rhode Island, April 7. A Governor is to be chosen in each.

GO AHEAD.—The "intelligent contrabands" feeling themselves slighted by the "white trash," are going to have an inauguration ball of their own, to which Gen. Grant, Mr. Colfax and several other white celebrities are to be invited.

About ten days more, and the question of "who will be in Grant's Cabinet" will be settled. If the General sticks to his promise, to turn out until he gets honest men, he will have to make many turns if he appoints Radicals exclusively.

SILENCE.—The Radical leaders denounced President Johnson outrageously for pardoning Dr. Mudd, a gentleman; but the pardon of that loyal perjured villain, Conover, alias Dunham, has not elicited even a squeal from their "loil" throats.

The negro amendment to the Constitution of the United States, has at last passed both houses of Congress, and will no doubt be submitted at once to the several State Legislatures for ratification. If ratified by three-fourths, Sambo will have the right to vote and hold office.

MRS. SURRATT'S REMAINS.—By order of the President, the remains of Mrs. Mary E. Surratt—who was murdered by a Military Commission, in July, 1865—were on Monday week disinterred, at the Arsenal, in Washington, D. C., and delivered to her friends. They were again interred near the city, on the day following, without any demonstration. The remains of Booth, Harold and Atzeroth have also been exhumed and delivered to their friends. The body of Payne alone remains unclaimed of those killed by Holt, Stanton, Bingham & Co.

HAD TO SURRENDER.—The Harrisburg robbers who attempted, in the House of Representatives, to fasten twenty-seven additional "pasters and folders" upon the Treasury, have, after six weeks skirmishing and bush-whacking, been compelled to surrender and discharge that number of their staff. The "loil" caucus was too weak to enforce its own decrees against the people and economy. The "ring" leaders have been compelled to eat their own victuals, nauseous and disagreeable as they no doubt are. But they must go down. The debate over the resolution for the discharge of these twenty-seven Treasury rats was rich and racy, and if allowed to appear in the Record as delivered, will be worth reading. We will publish these proceedings as soon as the sixty-one "pasters and folders" send the Record along.

A FAILURE.—A bold attempt was made last week by the corruption ring in our Legislature, to raise the salary of the members to $1,500, but there were righteous men enough in this modern Sodom to save the Treasury from the contemplated raid. Congressmen and Legislators act as though the people sent them to Washington and Harrisburg to steal the public lands and rob the Treasury. If the tendency of "grand moral ideas" is to this end, the sooner people get something else into their heads the better for themselves and the country.

The bishops of the M. E. Church have taken hold of General Grant. Would it not be well for them to also address an epistle to our Legislators, at Harrisburg?

THE TWENTY-SECOND.—The birthday of "the Father of his Country" came and passed, and but few seemed to know the fact until it was over. Radicalism, being very severe on "rebels" and the principles for which Washington contended for seven long years, has been as successful in ignoring his birthday as the Constitution. The American mind seems to have been rendered stupid and corrupt through dwarfish patriotism and pinch-back morality. While "Virtue, Liberty and Independence" was the pole-star by which the American citizen was guided, the name of Washington was revered everywhere, and his birthday watched by old and young, and not allowed to pass without a demonstration of some kind, by which the deeds of the patriotic sires were rehearsed, and the youngest could lisp Bunkerhill, Valley Forge, Yorktown, etc; while LOYALTY produced a stench in the nostrils of every American, because it was the shield of every Tory, Cowboy and knave that adhered to the cause of King George.

In Much Trouble.

The "loil" and would be refined, honest and religious propagandists of this country have given themselves much trouble over the "damnable doctrine" of Repudiation. They take the question as much to heart as the death of the "late lamented," but are contributing daily towards the result, by their gigantic robberies of the State and nation.

Will any of these par-excellent godly beings please tell us the difference, in a moral point of view, between Confiscation and Repudiation? They become horrified at hearing the latter suggested as the probable result of the wonderful increase of the national debt, while at the same time they practice the former in every way imaginable. They turn their "loil" eyes heavenward and howl in perfect hyena style, if they happen to hear some one say that the bonds held by John Doe might be repudiated, because they were obtained by fraud; yet they as complacently turn upon their heel and order the confiscation of the property of Richard Roe, through taxation and robbery, as though they were the gods of creation.

Now, will some genuine, unadulterated loyalist please inform us why it is godly to advocate and practice confiscation, and ungodly to intimate repudiation? If the right exists to confiscate a house and lot, or farm, why does not the same rule apply to a bond? And if the confiscation of the former continues much longer, will it not inevitably lead to the repudiation of the latter? You, who do not wish to make your bed with political harlots, negroes and robbers, reflect a little, and examine the road you are traveling. The men at present at the head of public affairs will never reform; and unless they are repudiated by the people, and that soon, the whole fabric will be ruined. The triangle dose of confiscation, repudiation and bankruptcy, will overtake us all.

A Reformation at Work.

Since Forney has been turned out of the U. S. Senate for robbing the Treasury, he seems to have turned his attention to business. It is a long time since we saw anything in the Press which we could commend. The other day, however, we noticed an article bearing upon the corrupt practices now prevailing at Harrisburg, which sounds like Forney in 1856, from which we take the following extract:

"The obnoxious legislation of this winter may be generally classed under two heads—corrupt and extravagant. With both the people greatly find fault, and the responsible parties should visit their heaviest censure.

"The corrupt legislation is managed by a "ring" or close clique of members—numerous enough to probably determine any question, but not too numerous to weaken too greatly the dividends. The ring undertakes all jobs of private legislation at whatever prices they can make, and shares the profits. By trading their votes on public questions and obliging honorable members in their local bills, expecting, and, if necessary, demanding unequivocally a reciprocation of what they call their courtesy, it is easily seen that quite a few members can do a large business—controlling a vote almost whenever they need it. This ring is composed in the House mainly of the members from three counties—Democrats and Republicans. On the floor their operations are not looked on as in any way connected with politics. In fact, they are in no way more of a political organization than an oil company or the Twelfth and Sixteenth-street Railroad enterprise. The Republican party is, of course, responsible for the members it sends, and the Democratic party for the members it sends, but there the responsibility ends, and it must be charged rather to the terrible demoralization of our politics than to the spirit of either party. Cut out from our politics the hose-house and whisky elements, and you will remedy this matter at once."

This reads as though Forney was reconstructed, or some stray pen has found its way into the columns of the Press. If the editor of "my two papers, both daily," continues to write in this strain, he may again attain to the respectable position he occupied previous to his treason.

THIRTY THOUSAND GONE.—The act passed by the Rump Congress, giving the lazy negroes of Washington $30,000 out of the U. S. Treasury, has became a law without the signature of the President. This sum will get every colored lady (!) and gentleman (!) in the capital a bran new suit this Spring, and some pocket money, besides.

ANOTHER HALF MILLION SWINDLE.—The Harrisburg Patriot thus exposes another swindle of the tax-payers by those whose especial business it should be to protect their interests—the members of the State Legislature:

"The History of the War, which is edited by Professor Bates, is one of greatest frauds that has been perpetrated upon the good old Commonwealth for many a long day. It will probably cost the State half a million of dollars, if not more, before it is finished. Instead of it being a history of the Pennsylvania volunteers, it is just the reverse. It is filled with glaring errors from beginning to end. Many a brave man has his name spelled wrong, merely because, as I suppose, he was a democrat. Facts throughout are so distorted and garbled that when the abortion is completed, it will take at least ten volumes, quarto size, of one thousand pages each, to make the necessary corrections."

No matter; the tax-payers must foot the bills, and loyal favorites must have fat jobs and good pay, (as they are too lazy to work,) even though they do publish lies by the thousand. 'Rah for our loil Legislature!

THE TENURE-OF-OFFICE ACT.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald says: General Grant's opinion of the Tenure of Office act is very plainly indicated in a remark he made a few days ago. When conversing with some friends, one or two of whom were not only Republicans in good standing, but members of Congress, "That law," said the General, 'seems to have been intended to work something like a curb bit on a fractious horse; but if you put such a bit on a kind horse you'll make him kick, whether he had the habit before or not."

Senator Morton, in arguing in favor of a pension or allowance of $5,000 a year to Mrs. Lincoln, estimated the total cost of Mr. Lincoln's funeral at $1,000,000. He said: "Altogether it cost the Government and the States not less than one million of dollars." Dear loyalist, we should say.

A new road to Independence, Mo., from Kansas City, is talked of. The surest road to Independence is by way of Industry, Frugality, Integrity and Sobriety. These places, however, are not to be found on the border maps of Missouri or Kansas.

SHRINER'S

BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP

Will cure the ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, BLOOD SPITTING, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, PAIN and WEAKNESS IN THE CHEST, TROUBLESOME COUGHING AT NIGHT, &c. It will effectually remove the Cough that frequently follows Measles, and any affection of the respiratory organs, no matter of how long standing, or whatever the age of the person. It acts as a specific, is purely vegetable and is pleasant to the taste. Its effect is soothing, allaying the violence of the cough, facilitating expectoration, quieting the nerves and exhilarating the system.

Mothers, Save Your Children!

No child need die of CROUP, if this Syrup is used in time: this is a fact demonstrated by experience. No family should be without this Syrup, as that fatal disease, CROUP, comes like a thief in the night, to steal away your little ones, when regular medical aid cannot be obtained.

Attention, Afflicted!

THE subscriber gives notice that he has resumed the practice of Medicine in Lutherburg, where he intends to devote his attention to the treatment of CHRONIC DISEASES in general. He will keep on hand a choice selection of DRUGS and MEDICINES adapted to the treatment of chronic diseases, and may be consulted at his office at any hour of the day.

N. B.—A word to those afflicted with chronic diseases may be to THEIR advantage. MANY MAY not be aware that COUNTRY Physicians who do a RIDING practice have not TIME to attend to the treatment of CHRONIC diseases, and consequently NEGLECT them: hence this class of diseases requires EXCLUSIVE attention.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know
How you may save your dollars;
The way to do it I will show,
If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here,
Who worked hard at his trade,
But had a household to support
That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend,
I look thread bear and rough;
I've tried to get myself a suit,
But
