I have violated the laws of debate! This thread-bare pretext blinds no one. The constinuous laws of debate! This thread-bare pretext blinds no one. The question was fairly stated in my second article. You should be ashamed to deny your own words in your first letter. Even if my protest mentioned nothing of Bible or common schools, I still had an undoubted right to refute your stale talumnies, as I did in my second article.

Income.—From profits in any trade, to business or vocation, from which income is actually derived, or any interest therein whenever carried on; if from the payment of debts in a former year considered lost, and which have not paid previous income tax; from remts; from farming operations—amount of live stock sold; from farming operations—amount of agriculture.
