How to Save Money.

J. FORREST & SON.

If you will read what follows. A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made. I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a will; But can't save up enough.

THE times are bard; you'd like to know

way to do it I will show,

Haye I, my friend, how much have you?
I'll tell you where to go To get a soit that's sound and cheap: To HEIZENSTEIN & Co. He took what little he had sured, And went to Raisenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others. Now he is home, he looks so wall, And their effect is such, That when they take their delly meal, They don't eat half as much.

And now he finds so Saturday night,

Ith all their wants supplied That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside. His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all,
If you'd save money, go and buy
Your clothes atheigenstelly's CLOTHING HALL.
