THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows. A man who lived not far from hers.

Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made. I met him once. Baye he, "My friand, I look thread bear and reagh; I've tried to get myself a sait, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll rell you where to go To get a suit thair eaund and cheap: To REIZENSTEIN & Co. He touk what little he had saved, And went to Retarnate n & Brothers', And there he get a handsome suit, For half he paid to others,

Now he is home, he looks so wall, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much. And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to by aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gindly tells to all. If you'd save memer, go and buy
