PEACE PROCLAIMED.

THE WAR OVER IN CLEARFIELD

KNOX TOWNSHIP QUIET.

Nearly all the Contraband going back to their old masters; but "nary one" going to old Massachusetts, where they were loved so long and so well.

IN consequence of the above facts, P. SHORT, of the old "Short Shoe Shop," would announce to his numerous patrons, and the people of Clearfield county at large, that he has now a first rate lot of good material, just received from the East, and is prepared to short notice to make and mend Boots and Shoes, at his new shop in Graham's row. He is satisfied that he can please all (unless it might be some intensely loyal stay-at-home patriots.) He is prepared to sell low for Cash or Country Produce. Don't forget the place—next door to Showers & Graham's store, on Market street, Clearfield, Pa., and kept by a fellow commonly called

GOOD HEALTH

Is paramount to wealth. If the system is in bad order purge out the vile humors and incompare with Roback's Blood Pills, and get the internal organs performing their vocative functions, and once to order, keep them so by the daily use of Roback's Stomach Bitters.

DYSPEPSIA.

There is, probably, no one disease with which mankind are afflicted which is the source of as many ailments as Dyspepsia, and there is no more certain cure than Roback's Stomach Bitters.

A REMARKABLE FACT

That not a single instance has come to the knowledge of the proprietors, of the failure of Roback's Medicines to give entire satisfaction in the hundreds of thousands of cases in which they have been used; this is worthy of remark and undeniable evidence of their intrinsic merits.

LOUD

Is the praise in the mouths of everybody in favor of Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Pills and Blood Purifier.

IS IT RIGHT

That you should bid defiance to all natural laws and the science of medical men, and suffer with Dyspepsia or Indigestion when Roback's Stomach Bitters can be procured at any drug store?

THEY WILL CURE YOU

Of Scrotula, Erysipelas, Sick or Nervous Headache, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Consumption, Pain in the Back or Loins, Gout, Pleurisy, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Eruptions and all diseases arising from a disordered state of the stomach, Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

AS A PREVENTIVE

Against Malaria, Fever and Ague, and all diseases, arising from a torpid state of the liver, there is no medicine so highly recommended as Roback's Stomach Bitters.

GRATIFYING

To know that a reliable remedy is within the reach of everybody for the radical cure of Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Such a remedy is Roback's Stomach Bitters. Sold by all Druggists.

EVERYBODY

Should keep constantly within their reach, those invaluable remedies to successfully combat disease. Roback's Blood Pills, Roback's Stomach Bitters, and Roback's Blood Purifier, they are infallible in the diseases for which they are recommended.

NOBODY

Can afford to be without such valuable medicines as Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

TEMPERANCE.

There is, perhaps, no one thing that has done so much to promote the cause of temperance as that gentle stimulating tonic, Roback's Stomach Bitters, they strengthen and invigorate without producing the ill effects of alcoholic stimulants.

RENOVATE.

During the Spring months it is one of the regular household duties to renovate, and, in the multiplicity of other duties one's own self is, in a great measure, overlooked; thousands of valuable lives might be prolonged, and many dear ones saved from premature graves by thoroughly renovating the system with Dr Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier are HARTSWICK & IRWIN, Clearfield, Pa. apr21

THE GREAT

ZINCARI BITTERS.

A safe Blood Purifier, a splendid Tonic, a pleasant Beverage, a certain cure and Preventive of Diseases.

THE ZINCARI BITTERS are compounded from a prescription of the celebrated Egyptian physician, Dr. CHARRAS, who, after years of trial and experiment, discovered the Zincari Herb—the most remarkable production, the earth, perhaps, has ever yielded—certainly the most effective in the cure of disease. It, in combination with the other valuable properties of which the ZINCARI BITTERS is composed, will cure—

Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Chollic, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption in its first stage, Flatulency, Nervous Debility, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Dysentery.

Acute and Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scrofula, Diseases of the Kidneys, Habitual Costiveness.

In the Prevention and Cure of the above diseases, it has never been known to fail, as thousands of our most prominent citizens throughout all parts of the country, will testify. Let the afflicted send for circular containing testimonials and certificates of those who have been cured after the cases have been pronounced hopeless by our best physicians.

Messrs. Thompson & Co., of Curwensville, again call the attention of their customers and the public generally to their new stock of goods. Go and examine them.

Special attention of the readers is called to advertisement of "Barlow's Indigo Blue," Wiltberger's, in this issue.

LADIES.—For the nicest polish Boots and Gaiters, go to the Banner Shoe Store of J. C. Lightcap & Son, Market street, Clearfield, Pa. *

COURT.—The regular session of a Court of Common Pleas will commence on the fourth Monday (24th) of May. The trial list for the term and the jury list for June term will be found in this issue.

We neglected at the time to call attention to the fact that Messrs. Josiah R. Reed & Co., had opened a Feed and Provision Store at Wallaceton, where they are determined to sell as cheap as anywhere along the line of the railroad. This firm is intirely responsible for all they agree to do, and can therefore be relied on.

INFORMATION WANTED.—William Thannon left Newry, Ireland, in June, 1856, and when last heard from was somewhere in Pennsylvania. His family and friends would gladly hear from him, if alive, or from any person knowing him. Any information furnished to William Marshall, Clearfield, Pa., will be properly reciprocated.

☞ Exchanges please copy.

SUDDEN DEATH.—An elderly gentleman, named Sturdevant, who formerly resided at Osceola, arrived at the Clearfield House, in this place, on the 25th ultimo, feeling somewhat unwell. He soon after took worse, when physicians were called in and found him very sick. He kept getting worse until the 1st inst., when he died. His body was taken to Williamsport by Messrs. Flynn, for interment.

Just received—a nice assortment of men's and boys' Boots and Shoes—at the Banner Shoe Store of J. C. Lightcap & Son, Market street. Sign of the Flag. *

BODY FOUND.—The body of Walter O'Brien, who was drowned in the river near the mouth of the Moshannon, about five weeks ago, was found on the 26th ult., at Buttermilk Falls eddy. Daniel Moore, Esq., of Karthaus, acting as Coroner, summoned a Jury; who, after examining the papers found on his person, and hearing witnesses, rendered a verdict in accordance with the foregoing facts. His pocket-book contained $55 07 in money, and a silver watch was found in his pocket. We understand he belonged to western New York, and was about returning home when he was drowned.

The best is always the cheapest. This is a truth patent to every one. Therefore we advise you to go and buy your Boots, Shoes, Hats and Caps, from J. C. Lightcap & Son, Market street, Clearfield, Pa. *

THE SPANISH ATTORNEY.—Wonders and humbuggery, it seems, will never cease, as the following advertisement, which appeared in the Philadelphia papers, clearly indicates:

THE YOUNG MENNERCHOR HAS KINDly volunteered to sing a grand Liberty Chorus, in costume, at the Cuba Meeting, to be held at the Academy of Music, on FRIDAY EVENING. The Germania Band is engaged.

In addition to the Speakers already announced, the following distinguished gentleman will address the meeting:

R. BUCHER SWOOPE, Esq.,
SENOR PONCE DE LEON,
SENOR JOSEPH VALIENTE,
SENOR ENRIQUE PINEYRO,
And the celebrated French traveler in Africa,
PAUL DU CHAILLU.

It is said that Swoope has frequently walked Spanish, but when he learned to talk so, we cannot conjecture, unless he has learned it since he commenced running after an office. The Spaniards had better keep a sharp look out for this modern hero. His Bloody Run campaign, during our rebellion, has whetted his appetite for more blood, and he may capture the Island.

BURGLARY.—This heinous crime seems to be on the increase throughout the country, and especially in our town. Within a few weeks no less than four burglaries, besides several attempts, have been committed in this neighborhood. The private dwellings of Mr John McGaughey, in the upper end of the borough, and Mr. Geo. H. Hall, near the Goodfellow Bridge, were entered one night last week, and robbed of clothing, household goods and money. Our citizens should understand that the time has passed when they could with safety allow the doors and windows of their dwellings stand unfastened during the night.

Burglars, thieves and vagabonds of all classes usually follow railroads, and we need not be disappointed, if we let our doors stand open, to find that we have entertained strangers unawares, and perhaps to our amazement, if not to our sorrow.

Citizens should properly secure their stores, offices and dwellings against the intrusion of these vagabonds. It becomes the duty of the officers of the law, also, to look after these fellows; then if the depredations continue, shoot every rascal who attempts to break into your buildings. This advice, we know, is not according to the act of Assembly, but we will guarantee it will stop housebreaking and robbery. One burglar tried in this way will frighten a dozen more, and will cause them to abandon their business, or go elsewhere to ply their vocation and risk an Act of Assembly, officers and pardons.

An Act.

The following act, relating to hawking, peddling, and huckstering, in Clearfield and Indiana counties, passed the Legislature at its recent session, was approved by the Governor, and is therefore a law:

Be it enacted, &c. That from and after the passage of this act, no person shall sell or expose for sale, within the limits of Indiana and Clearfield counties, as a hawker, or peddler, or traveling merchant, any made-up clothing, hats, foreign or domestic goods, jewelry, etc., or do business as a huckster without first obtaining a license so to do, and paying therefor to the treasurer of said county, for the use of the commonwealth, the sum of two hundred dollars, which license the treasurer of the county is hereby authorized to grant upon the payment of said sum. Provided, It shall not be lawful for the treasurer to grant a license for any less period than one year nor for any less sum than two hundred dollars. And provided further, that no more than one person shall be permitted to sell under the same license.

SEC. 2. That if any persons or person, shall so engage, or be concerned in hawking, peddling or huckstering within the limits of said counties without first obtaining such license as aforesaid, he or they shall forfeit and pay the sum of $100, one half for the use of the commonwealth, the other half for the use of the person who shall prosecute for the same, the said penalty to be recovered by action of debt before any justice of the peace, as debts of like amount are by law recoverable, and every repetition of said offence shall be considered as a new offence, and every person so employed who upon demand shall refuse to exhibit his or their license, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in the same manner and for the same use as aforesaid. Provided, that this act shall not apply to decrepit person or persons wounded in the military service of the United States, and who may be residents of the county, or to peddlers of drugs, notions, etc., who sell to merchants and to them only. Provided further, that this act shall not apply to person known as butter and egg peddlers.

HON. ARNOLD PLUMER.—This veteran Democrat, died at his home in Franklin, on the 28th ult., in the 68th year of his age. The Venango Spectator says:

"Arnold Plumer was no ordinary man. While yet a boy, his neighbors called him to the responsible office of Sheriff of Venango County, and he entered upon its duties a few months after attaining the legal age. He was appointed Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts by Governor Wolf, in 1829, and served in that capacity six years. In 1836, he was elected to Congress from this District,—serving two terms,—and was afterwards appointed Marshal of the Western District of Pennsylvania by President Van Buren. Subsequently, he was twice elected to the office of State Treasurer, and once as Canal Commissioner."

General Longstreet, appointed Surveyor of the Port of New Orleans by President Grant, will receive a salary of ten thousand per year, while the poor Federal soldier who lost his leg in the "Wilderness" confronting Longstreet's "rebel" legions, will continue to grind his organ on Broadway, after paying the loyal government ten dollars per year for the privilege. It is remarkable how quick the taint of "rebel" is removed by getting loyal, and how it pays to be a prominent man.—N. Y. Democrat.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR BUTLER.—A short time since, as General Butler was riding in the Pennsylvania Avenue cars, a lady who was leaving the car remarked as she passed him. "Look out for your spoons." The General promptly followed her, and ascertained that she was employed in the Treasury. She has now obtained a permanent leave of absence, and the General has had her place filled by a colored woman.

Grant's Quaker-Indian Policy.

Gen. Grant's veracity, so badly tested during his ad interim affair with Johnson, has gone "by the board" entirely with many tall Senators. His Quaker-Indian policy has been damaged "mightily," in that line. The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says:

"There is considerable ill feeling among the Senators and members from the extreme Northwestern States about the President's appointment of Quaker-Indian agents in those States. It appears that the Senators and Representatives from Kansas and Nebraska, learning of the President's intention to appoint the Quakers, called upon him and extracted a promise from him that he would not appoint Quakers for the Indian agencies in their respective States. He further agreed to allow them to select the men whom they wished to have appointed. With this understanding, and happy in the belief that whoever else might suffer Kansas and Nebraska would not be inflicted with the Quakers, the Representatives of the two States left the Executive presence. That was between ten and eleven o'clock in the morning. About two o'clock in the afternoon of that same day the President's private secretary brought to the Senate a batch of nominations, among which were the Quaker-Indian agents. To the utter surprise of the Kansas and Nebraska men, the list included appointments for all the Indian agencies in those two States. In self-defence, if not out of retaliation, these agents were promptly rejected by the Senate. The injured Kansas and Nebraska men again called upon the President, and remonstrated with him, at the same time reminding him of his promise. Grant, however, was mad; he was inexorable, and said he would appoint other Quakers for those rejected, and the Senate might reject them again if it chose. He wanted to carry out his own policy about Indian matters, and he thought it would succeed best in the hands of Quakers. What especially provoked the Nebraska men was the fact that one of the parties removed to make room for the Quakers was a man who had been commissioned by President Grant only a few weeks before. Thus far the Kansas and Nebraska Senators have been unable to make the President relent."

Another correspondent states that the Iowa Senators hitched on with those above named, and that Rev. Senator Harlan is the head of the ring. He, while Secretary of the Interior under Lincoln, sold to himself and a few friends eight hundred thousand acres of land belonging to the Indians, which transaction has for some time been undergoing an investigation by order of President Johnson. Hence Harlan & Co., want no interference with their plundering schemes by Quakers, or anybody else who may refuse to cover up their robberies.

"Honest Men."

The Harrisburg State Guard, Geary's organ, gives the following list of "honest men" in the late Legislature, viz:

Senators: Wilmer Worthington, of Chester county; C. H. Stinson, of Montgomery county; R. S. Brown, of Northampton county; A. G. Olmsted, of Potter county; G. Dawson Coleman, of Lebanon county; E. Billingfelt, of Lancaster county; C. T. McIntire, of Perry county; W. A. Wallace, of Clearfield; James L. Graham, of Pittsburg; James Kerr, of Butler; and M. B. Lowry, of Erie.

Representatives: Speaker Clark, of Philadelphia; J. F. Chamberlain, of Bradford county; R. B. Brown, of Clarion county; F. W. Ames, of Crawford county; George F. Rea and John D. Stranahan, of Erie county; W. H. Playford, of Fayette county; S. B. Brown, of Huntingdon county; John H. Walker, of Franklin county; John H. Longenecker, of Bedford county, and the veteran Thomas Nicholson, of Beaver county.

In speaking of the meeting in aid of Cuba to be held in Philadelphia, the Daily News says:

"There can be no doubt, we presume, of the success of the rebels in Cuba. Butcher Swoope, of Clearfield, and the illustrious Goforth, of Philadelphia, have taken the matter in hand, and will undertake to show how the thing is
