How to Save Money.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may cave your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That equandered all he made.

I met him ence. Says he, "My friend,
I look thread bear and rengh;
I're tried to get myself a ruit,
But can't save up enough."
Says I, my friend, hew much have you?
I'll tell you where to ge
To get a soit that's sound and cheap:
To BEIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reisenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their waste supplied,

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly talks to all, If you'd save money, go and buy Your clothes at-

That he has money left to spend, And some to lay uside.
