> conduct .- N. Y. World. AWFUL !- The New York Tribune makes the grievous complaint that "some forty freedmen's schools have been closed in Maryland because the teachers could not find homes with the white people." Could not they carry their ideas of social equality so far as to take board with the negroes, or are they so deeply imbued with the prejudice of caste that they would rather leave the poor African unin-structed than to consort with him? Our Radical friends should be consistent on this subject.
