

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1869.

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention for the nomination of candidates for the offices of Governor and Judge of the Supreme Court will meet at 10 o'clock, a. m., on Wednesday, July 14, 1869, in the Hall of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg. By order of the Democratic State Committee.

The Primary Election.

Below we give the total vote received by each candidate at the Primary Election on Saturday last. Mr. Lawshe, for Assembly, and Mr. Miller, for Auditor, had no opposition: Assembly—John Lawshe . . . 1821 Treasurer—Lever Flegal . . . 1859 John Owens . . . 458 Committeemen—S. H. Hindman 1061 Aaron Hartman 248 Anthony Hill 620 Auditor—John D. Miller . . . 1001

The Venango County Democratic Convention.

The Venango County Democratic Convention favors the nomination of Col. James K. Kerr for Governor.

Blair county is without a County Superintendent.

Mr. Elder's commission has expired, and the officer elect has not received his commission.

The State Guard, one of the Radical organs at Harrisburg, has collapsed.

It belittled too loudly for Geary, hence its demise. The party will have a similar fate awarded next October.

President Grant was last week run all over Massachusetts by toll tories.

and fustled, toasted and wine-d; but, unlike Baalam's horse, he never opened his mouth. He would not speak for the yankees. Grant is a natural Know Nothing.

SENATORIAL DELEGATE.—W. W. Barr, Esq., of Clarion, has been chosen as the delegate from this district to the Democratic State Convention, which assembles at Harrisburg on the 14th of July next, to nominate candidates for Governor and Supreme Judge.

The friends and admirers of ex-Governor Curtin, after a long seige of feasting, wineing and speech-making, shipped him from New York last week for Russia, where he goes as minister plenipotentiary. Toadyism and lollism, when hitched up together, make a splurging team.

The Brookville Herald has been sold by Capt. J. P. George to G. Nelson Smith, Esq., an old veteran Democratic editor, who continues the paper under its old name—the Jeffersonian.

A DIFFERENCE.—Although the late election in Washington was a complete riot on the part of the Radical niggers and whites, not a man has been arrested. Of course not! An arrest might put some of the "loll millions" in chancery. An election riot in Clearfield would be an outrage, followed by arrest, fine and imprisonment, but at the National capital it is treated with levity, because loll so-called niggers might suffer.

HON. WILLIAM A. WALLACE.—We regret to see it announced that Hon. William A. Wallace declines a re-election to the responsible position of Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, which he has now held for three years. He has discharged the duties of that thankless office, for which his executive abilities peculiarly fit him, with great ability and fidelity, and we doubt whether his equal can be found to take his place. If, on reflection, Mr. Wallace will not serve longer, let the most capable Democrat in the State be selected for the position.—Doylstown Democrat.

INDIANA COUNTY.—The Democratic County Convention of Indiana met on the 11th instant, and appointed Jos. M. Thompson, Esq., Representative Delegate, and James B. Sanson, Esq., Senatorial Delegate to the State Convention, with instructions to vote for the nomination of George W. Cass for Governor, and Silas M. Clark, of Indiana, for Judge of the Supreme Court.

Religion seems to flourish up in the "loll" counties. The Potter Journal says: "Condover has two ministers of the gospel and three billiard tables. We can't beat that, for not only have we the same number of "ministers" and "billiard tables" but we have a bowling saloon.—Emporium Independent.

It is a curious fact that appears from a report of the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, that while there is but one revolutionary soldier now living (he lives in New York), and drawing a pension, there are at the present time on the rolls the names of 888 widows of revolutionary soldiers.

Florida has ratified the Fifteenth Amendment, and all the Radical newspapers in the country are rejoicing that another step has been taken towards negro equality.

The War with England.

The Lanceter Intelligence says the attempt to make a party issue out of the Alabama claims has been abandoned by the Radicals. From Sumner's absurd assumption the party has speedily climbed down, and it is now rooting on the lower branches of the tree which it ascended with such surprising agility only a short time ago. The great Curtin banquet at Philadelphia passed off without even an allusion to the matter. The capitalists of the country promptly brought a resistless pressure to bear upon President Grant, and he sent Mr. Motley to England with the most pacific instructions.

The Lanceter Intelligence says the attempt to make a party issue out of the Alabama claims has been abandoned by the Radicals.

The course of the Democratic press in regard to this matter has been judicious and sensible throughout. We could have beaten the Radicals at their own game and have completely taken all the wind out of their sails by clamoring for war against England more vehemently than they; but we chose rather to deal in terms of moderation and prudence. In this, as in other matters, the Democratic party has shown such wisdom as is needed to insure the safe conduct of our public affairs. We cannot be induced to act wrongly for mere partisan effect, and in that it differs widely from the reckless leaders of the Radical party. They are willing to rush the nation into the most dangerous experiments, if by so doing they may be enabled to set themselves more firmly in the comfortable positions which afford such fine opportunities for plandering the public treasury. Now, that the Alabama Hamburg is exploded, we wait to see what new dodge they will turn. Some exciting topic must be introduced before long; something which will make "a good enough Morgan until after the election." What will it be?

CONCENTRATING.—An effort is being made to concentrate the opposition which exists in Radical circles to the re-nomination of John W. Geary. A meeting of those who are against him was held in Philadelphia, and it was determined to put forward Col. Wm. B. Thomas as a candidate.

Don Platt is not pleased with the attacks made upon him by the "little creatures" of the Radical party because of his open threats and charges, and thus plans them to the wall.

"They don't know it but I do, that the vilest scoundrel I ever encountered is an honest man by the side of Ben. Butler. The roughest rough of the Democracy is a gentleman by the side of Chandler. And the stupidest ass that howls "nigger" at the cross roads is a statesman by the side of Kelly. Now am I to heap abuse on Fernando Wood and Jimmy Brooks, and hold my peace in the presence of such fellows, whose unlicensed liberty not only endangers our organization, but threatens the country?"

The Medical Society of Washington City, having refused to admit a negro to their Association, to Radical papers are all howling in concert, and Congress is called upon to annul the charter of the Society. Why can't these foolish fanatics leave the negro to work out his own social salvation? What is the use of trying to foist him into a position of equality for which he is unfit? Surely white men in this country have still the right to say whether they will admit negroes to their societies or not.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Henry J. Raymond, of the New York Times, died at his residence in this city at 5 o'clock this morning. Last night he was at the Times office, with his daughter, apparently in as good health as at any period of his life. He returned home, and at 2 o'clock a. m. was stricken with apoplexy, and died three hours afterwards. Mr. Raymond has never before had an attack of the disease which has resulted in his death.

That political harlot, Parson Brownlow, now declares against the continued disfranchisement of the majority of the white citizens of Tennessee. He thinks it has served its purpose, in giving the Radicals entire control of the State. Among the fruits of this are the complete exhaustion of the revenues, and the failure to pay the interest on the State debt.

When a Scot in minister told his neighbor that he had preached two hours and a half the day before, the neighbor said to him, "Why minister, were you not tired to death?" "A wae," said he, "I was as fresh as a rose; but it would have done your heart good to see how tired the congregation was."

In Alabama the Democrats are preparing for a new contest, and hope to carry the State by a good majority. Intelligent men, of the opposition, are daily connecting themselves with the Democratic party, while the negroes will be more divided than at any former election. Day is breaking in all the Southern States.

Religion seems to flourish up in the "loll" counties. The Potter Journal says: "Condover has two ministers of the gospel and three billiard tables. We can't beat that, for not only have we the same number of "ministers" and "billiard tables" but we have a bowling saloon.—Emporium Independent.

It is a curious fact that appears from a report of the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, that while there is but one revolutionary soldier now living (he lives in New York), and drawing a pension, there are at the present time on the rolls the names of 888 widows of revolutionary soldiers.

Florida has ratified the Fifteenth Amendment, and all the Radical newspapers in the country are rejoicing that another step has been taken towards negro equality.

The New Law in Relation to the Collection of School Tax.

The following law relating to the collection of school tax was passed by the last Legislature, and approved by the Governor: Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for the board of school directors of any school district in this Commonwealth, by resolution of the board, to authorize the collection of the school tax in the manner hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. The board of school directors shall place in the hands of the treasurer a certified duplicate of the school tax, and it shall be his duty to give at least one month's notice of the time and place at which he will attend, at least on day, for the purpose of receiving school tax; and it shall be his duty to receive and receipt for all the school tax given him for three months after the date of said notice; Provided, That if any person, on or before the expiration of two months after the date of said notice, shall pay to the collector the amount of his or her tax, such person shall not be liable to a deduction of five per cent. on the amount thereof, and for the remaining month he shall make no statement on the taxes received.

Sec. 3. In case the taxes are not all paid on or before the expiration of three months from the date of said notice, the board of directors shall elect a collector, have the duplicate placed in his hands, and issue to him a warrant for the collection of school tax on said duplicate; and he shall proceed to collect the unpaid tax assessed therein, with an addition of five per cent. on the amount thereof, in the manner heretofore provided by law; he shall be allowed such compensation as may be agreed upon, not exceeding five per cent. of the money collected; and in addition, in case of distress and sale of goods, he shall receive the same fees as are now allowed by law to constables for a levy and sale upon the goods of any person, who shall retain out of the proceeds of such sales after deducting the taxes and the addition of five per cent. thereon.

Sec. 4. All acts or parts of acts for the collection of school tax that are hereby repealed or supplied are hereby repealed, so far as they relate to districts in which the board of directors authorize the collection of school tax on said duplicate; and the provisions of this act: Provided, That all the provisions of this act shall apply to the cities of Pittsburgh, or Allegheny, or to the counties of Cumberland, York, Franklin, Adams, Sullivan, Columbia, Montour, Northumberland, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, Berks, Somerset, Bedford, Fulton, Allegheny, Luzerne, Indiana, Cambria and Jefferson.

A PROLEGATE LAW OFFICER.—The opinion of Attorney General Blair upon the holding of a Court-Martial in the State of Texas, which condemned to death a citizen of that State for killing a negro, has been given and made public. We say, approving the finding, for although the opinion of the Attorney General is never asked in regard to the merits of cases, and his ratio has never been vouchsafed gratuitously in an important State paper, yet, in this instance, where the competency of a drumhead Court-Martial was so lately in question, on this high official has gone out his way to argue the merits of the case and play the pettifogging Radical prosecutor in addition to giving his opinion upon the merits of the case.

Very respectfully yours, S. P. CHASE.

The Ku-Kluxed Karkey.

The Bellefonte Watchman says: "Lolly is in tears, sorrow sobs on its door step, and demands aid on its yard gate. Black craps flutters from the coat sleeves of its brotherhood, and brine bedewed handkerchiefs wipe the noses of its faithful. There is sorrow and sighing in its camp, for Ku-Kluxism has entered its charmed circle, and laid low one of its beloved ones. The telegraph of the 14th inst., tells the great trouble thusly: On Saturday, at the National Soldiers' Home at Dayton, a colored veteran named Evans, a pensioner, struck a fellow soldier named Williams three blows with a hatchet, wounding him and killing him. The two were sweeping the hall. Evans is in jail on charge of murder. While Congress is investigating—while the military district for Dayton is being arranged, and the thousand speculated "razor office" men are preparing to take charge of the Dayton district—to reconstruct Ku-Klux, darkeys, democrats and all, let the weepie's brotherly chant: This world is full of wonder, This world is full of woe, A Ku-Kluxed Karkey, Laid another dagger low."

JOHN H. SURRATT.—In our advertising columns of this morning will be found the card of John H. Surrott, Esq., who has opened a Produce and General Commission House at No. 60, Light Street Wharf, Baltimore. The cruel and unjust persecution endured by this young man in the past three years, and his courteous and dignified bearing throughout, has won for him the sympathy, respect, and esteem of every body, and in his new vocation we bespeak for him that substantial encouragement of his fellow-citizens to enable him to retrieve in a measure the humble fortune which he has been so ruthlessly deprived. He is so well known as to require no endorsement as to integrity, and as to business qualifications, he only desires an opportunity to afford perfect satisfaction.—Prince Georgian.

REBELLION.—The Harrisburg Patriot says: "Sumner, the Washington negro, who was mobbed by the people of his own race for voting as he pleased, has been driven from his home and is now a refugee in Maryland. The Radicals gloat over this outrage on the freedom of the elective franchise. They are a detestable set to talk about universal suffrage. They should hide their heads in shame. It is now plain enough that they do not mean to enfranchise the blacks in order to confer upon them political freedom. They want them for voting tools, and if these intended instruments should undertake to cast a ballot for the opponents to Radicalism, they will be mobbed and driven into exile. Impartial freedom and universal suffrage under Radical control! Fugh! It makes a decent man's gorge rise at the very thought of such disgusting hypocrisy!"

"I wish you would not give me so much short weight for my money," said a customer to a grocer, who had an outstanding bill against him. "And I wish you would give me such long weight for mine," replied the grocer.

State Elections.

The following State elections will come off during the summer and fall of 1869: July 6, Virginia—State Officers and Congressmen. August 2, Alabama—Members of Congress. August 2, Kentucky—State Treasurer and Legislature. August 4, Tennessee—State Officers and Legislature. August 10, Montana Territory—Delegate to Congress. September 7, Vermont—State Officers and Legislature. September 13, Maine—State Officers and Legislature. October 5, Colorado—Delegates to Congress. October 12, Pennsylvania—State Officers and Legislature. October 12, Ohio—State Officers and Legislature. October 12, Iowa—State Officers and Legislature. October 20, California—Judges of the Supreme Court. November 2, New York—Secretary of State, Legislature, &c. November 2, New Jersey—Legislature. November 2, Massachusetts—State Officers and Legislature. November 2, Minnesota—State Officers and Legislature. November 2, Wisconsin—State Officers and Legislature.

Joseph Adkins, a Radical carpet bag State Senator of Georgia, was assassinated a few days ago, while riding along the railway. The assassin was a one-legged ex-confederate soldier, Terrible Ku-Klux outrage. But when it is taken into consideration that Adkins had made persistent and determined attempts first to seduce, and then to ravish the soldier's sister, and died, dirty villain that he was, a proper and merited death, the Ku-Klux part of this story loses much of its force.

An exchange says Grant intends throwing himself upon the Democratic party. If he does, the party will be in about the same fix the farm wagon is in when it has too much dung aboard—it'll break down.

NIVLING, D. G. NIVLING.

HEAVEN'S JUSTICE.—An incident of Decoration Day (May 30) has only just now come to notice on authority perfectly trustworthy. The refusal on that day to allow the Confederate graves in Arlington Cemetery to be decorated, and the removal and trampling upon the few flowers dropped upon the sleeping "rebels" are facts which will fill fresh in the minds of all. It will also be remembered that Saturday evening, after the Grand Army of the Republic had left Arlington, there came on a severe storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning and torrents of rain. The following morning all was calm and sunny again. The right and storm had wrought a remarkable change in Arlington Cemetery. The wind had caught up the flowers which decked the graves of the Union dead, and had bestowed them lavishly, tenderly, upon the neglected resting-places of the dead of the "Lost Cause." Kneel deep in some places lay the beautiful flowers, in perfumed and colored darts with rain drops glistening in the soft petals, like fresh fallen tears.

There has grown up in this country a system which violates the laws of nature, and in fact, recognizes robbery as a regular business. We allude to the "Detective System," so far as it makes the compounding of felonies a part of its operation. The great bond robberies of New York were hushed up, on the restoration of the bulk of the property—less a very large reward paid to the thieves who stole it, and the officers of justice who arranged with them for the return of the booty. Every one is glad to know that the Beneficial Savings Fund has recovered its property; but there is a general desire to know, also, by what means and at what cost this has been effected. There are no ends of real justice served by concealments in such a matter, and we hope the officers of the city and the Commonwealth will probe it to the bottom. Compounding a felony is a serious crime at common law, and by a statute of Pennsylvania, "if any person or persons shall agree or compound or take satisfaction for any stealing or goods stolen, such person shall forfeit twice the value of the sum agreed for or taken."—Age.

"Under God, this government is ours, and we are administered in the interests of true freedom save by the Republican party."—The Press.

"Against God, this government of ours has been administered in the interests of thieves, robbers and rascals of all descriptions, and will continue to be so long as the Radicals remain in power."—The Age.
