I doem it my duty, sir, before proceeding to a bal-lot, in behalf of an honored name, in behalt of one whom I know the people of Pennsylvania will always delight to honor, to present an expression of his sentiments before he is placed before the public for the office of Governor of his native State. I have in my possession a letter written by Gen. Winfield S. Hancock, dated on explicitly and distinctly declares that be will not permit his name to be used

Executive chamber, a man on whom the people cannot rely; one who has not successfully opposed corrupt legislation—a man, in fact, the very instrument of those whose evil reputations are known throughout the Commonwealth. Is there a remedy? Yes! It is in the hands of the people and we confidently feel that it will be applied by this convention, and by the people. [Applause.]

I do not mistake when I say that no matter which one of the candidates before us shall be nominated for the office of Governor, he will pass into that office, in case of his election, with a will, a capacity, and a support which will purify the government and its institutions, and will redeem the character of the people from the evils that have fallen upon them, because public men have been placed in office unqualitions, they now hold.
