

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, EDITOR. CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6, 1869.

Democratic State Ticket.

- HON. ASA PACKER, OF CARBON COUNTY. FOR SUPREME JUDGE. HON. CYRUS L. PERSHING, OF CAMBRIA COUNTY.

Democratic District Ticket.

- Assembly. JOHN C. HALL, of Elk County. Democratic County Ticket. LEVER FLEGAL, of Brady township, County Commissioner. S. H. HENDMAN, of Beccara township, Auditor. JOHN D. MILLER, of Bell township.

George Penbo, the eminent philanthropist, started from New York, on the 29th ultimo, for Europe.

The New York State Engineer's report for the year ending 1st September, 1869, shows that 309 persons were killed and 461 injured on the railroads of that state.

EXTRA JUDICIAL.—We notice by our Huntingdon exchanges that seven clergymen of that town have jointly issued a proclamation against dancing.

THE CHURCH CLOSED.—"Honest" John Covode, for the purpose of raising a little enthusiasm for his friend Hans Geary, went over to Washington the other day to get Gen. Grant to exhibit himself through the iron and coal regions in the eastern counties of this State.

THE DYEING OF GEARY.—The World says "behold that the terrible old war horse Geary is once more on the war path, it is well enough to revive his old story, which he told, with great success, in his first fight for the Governorship of Pennsylvania, about fighting Stonewall Jackson to death.

GEARYISM.—Hans Geary, when retelling his falsehoods in the Court House last week, should have explained to the people why the State Governor paid two hundred and eighty-five thousand, six hundred and eighteen dollars more interest on the State debt the two past than were paid the two previous years.

OF THE SAME OPINION.—Greely, of the New York Tribune has a fellow traveling over Europe catechizing and hunting up great men, from whom he extracts opinions with reference to the future welfare of this country.

THE TIDE IS UP.—The late elections in Vermont and Maine show that the "doll millions" are as much demoralized in those States as their brethren are in Virginia and Tennessee.

DEMOCRATS, EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS.—Don't compromise with rinks, rosters, and corruptionists. Let no Democrat stay away from the polls on next Tuesday.

Cheering Views.—The Bedford Gazette says: "From every part of the State come the tidings of accessions to the Democracy. The attempt to have Negro Suffrage on our State through the instrumentality of the Fifteenth Amendment, the short comings of Grant's administration and the errand and official malversation at the State capitol, joined with the personal unpopularity of Governor Geary, have thoroughly disgusted the rank and file of the radical party and have caused even many of its leaders to regard the mass with indifference.

In order to place our success beyond all doubt, "to make assurance doubly sure," it is only necessary for every Democrat to go to the election and vote. This time the Democracy are perfectly united on their State nominations. A large conservative vote is gravitating to our side.

To bring out a full vote, much work must be done. The tooting of horns, the rattling of drums, the tinkling of cymbals, the spitting of throats by public speakers, are of but little avail.

BEWARE OF GEARY.—The World says "behold that the terrible old war horse Geary is once more on the war path, it is well enough to revive his old story, which he told, with great success, in his first fight for the Governorship of Pennsylvania, about fighting Stonewall Jackson to death.

THE DYING INJECTION OF STONEWALL JACKSON, as reported by Geary, is now repeated to the voters of Pennsylvania: "Beware of Geary!"

LOOK HERE!—Gov. Geary last week told his hearers that $5,000 in greenbacks was not worth as much money now as $3,000 in gold in 1860. If this is so, why does he persist in telling the people that the country is in a prosperous condition?

DEMOCRATS, EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS.—Don't compromise with rinks, rosters, and corruptionists. Let no Democrat stay away from the polls on next Tuesday.

Vote against Geary the tool of the corruption ring at Harrisburg.

Grand Democratic Rally. In accordance with the call of Chairman of County Committee, J. Blake Walters, Esq., a large and unusually enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Clearfield assembled in the Court House in this place, on Tuesday evening, September 28th, ultimo.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: It affords me an inexpressible pleasure to preside over a body of my fellow-citizens, when called together to listen to the teachings of the Democratic Party. I have been with you in many gatherings for widely different purposes, but never does my soul feel that enthusiastic inspiration which seems to pervade every latest speech of attachment to you, when in so vast a collection, you deliberate upon the wrongs you have borne; and upon the gigantic stride this modern Iniquity, the present Congress, is taking to sink forever into oblivion our cherished rights, and the dearly bought liberties handed down to you from your ancestors.

The following officers were then elected: Vice Presidents.—Col. C. S. Worrall, Grier Bell, Jr., Frederick Shuff, O. L. Schellenger, J. A. Pie, David Erhard, Patrick Dailey. Secretaries.—David P. Fitzwiller and J. S. Smith. Committee on Resolutions.—Dan'l W. Moore, John Lawler, W. D. Bigler, Capt. J. H. Norris, M. C. Cummings, H. W. Smith, James C. Barrett, Hon. Wm. Bigler was called upon to address the meeting.

Now I shall refer to the debt of our State and the way it has been paid; for, if we listen to the rantings of our Republican friends, they have been performing wonders. Last year they collected some sixty millions of dollars, and collected it in other countries of our State. Now, what have they done with the money?

Regarding our candidate for Judge of Supreme Court, Hon. Cyrus L. Pershing: He has been among you here; he has been five years in the Legislature, and is a man eminently fitted for the position.
