PERRY'S VICTORY.

of 1812," by Benson J. Lossing. The volume is beautifully illustrated, and the completeness of the references, maps, authorities, and the large ount of new material which Mr. Lossing has himself gathered, make it more satisfactory than any similar work hitherto published. The illus-trations of familiar scenes about Eric, made from Mr. Lossing's sketches, are readily recognized. We extract the following account of the building of Perry's fleet at Erie, and the story

Within the memory of living men Presqu' Isle (the peninsula) has been a barren sand-bank; now it is covered house, and named Fort Wayne. harbor is one of the finest on the lake question, and until lately, its entrance ficult on account of sand-bars and shoals. We, the the undersigned, having witnessed the trial of Z. J. Booth's Improved Stemp Extractor on the farm of R. H. Moore, near Luthershurg, or Saturday and Menday, the 7th and With of November, take pleasure in asying to the public, that we believe it to be the best machine lie, that we believe it to be the best unchine new in use for extracting atmops. It is of simple construction, early managed, not liable to get out of order, and very distable. Four men took the mashive from the wagon, when entirely apart, put it together, and pulled a large pine sump in less than one hour. We saw two men pull a large stump with ease. They use a horse, but he does his work in taking out the largest atmus, without a hard pull. Mr. Booth, the Patentee, fully understands putting up and handling the machine. We would advise these in want of stump extractors he see this one tested before purchasing elumines, which they can do free of charge by calling on the Proprietors.
