

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 15, 1869.

SENTENCED.—On Saturday last, Cornelius Kane, John Lynch, John Mulvany, and Edward Powers, tried and convicted at the November court...

Grant wants Congress to repeal the "tenure of office" act. The bride-to-be radicals compelled President Johnson to wear, as the "government" too much, gives Ben. Butler more power than Grant.

So, So!—The Woman's National Suffrage Association held a meeting in New York, last week, to take into consideration the late divorce—murder case. They charge the murder of Richardson, to the acquittal of Siskles and Cole.

READ IT.—We call the attention of our readers to an article in this issue, taken from that standard newspaper authority, the New York Observer, bearing upon the Richardson—McFarland—Beecher adultery case.

NOTE OF CENSURE.—The millions, about one year ago, made a great fuss over President Johnson recommending that the interest on the United States Bonds be reduced to four and a half per cent.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—We are gratified to notice that our neighbor and townsman, D. W. Moore, Esq., has purchased and become editor and publisher of the Altoona Advertiser.

CONGRESS.—This body is now in session, and will no doubt continue for six months to come, unless a family fight springs up in the loft household. It is still troubled with reconstruction.

THE RIGHT WAY.—We are very much pleased at the course the Harbinger Patriot is taking with reference to the Legislative corruption ring.

THEY WON'T GO TO THE SOUTH.—The New York Journal of Commerce complains that Radical Congressmen are perfectly willing to cross the continent, travel through New England, voyage to San Domingo, or go to the uttermost parts of the earth at public expense.
