mnd ngents of the Government, the "government" itself not being protof against presents—bribes.

One of the evils which seems to have afflicted Congressmen for the past ten years, is the sale of Cadetships. Many of the members engaging in it as a matter of merchandise. Rich men selling their sons to Congressmen for the past ten years, is the sale of Cadetships. Many of the members engage ging in it as a matter of merchandise. Rich men selling their sons to Congressmen for West Point and Annupolis, for a price, like so many horses or oxen. Those paying the highest price recurring the place. Dollars and cents being substitutes for merit and honor. An investigation on the part of a Congressional committee shows that more than one-third of the members in the present and past Congress had engaged in this infamous traffle, but the meanest seals wag of line whole tribe has really escaped expulsion. We refer to R. B. Butler, of Tennssee, a scalawag of the deepest dye. This Butler was a Confederate Colonel, one of the first to go into the war, and stuck to it until the surrender. He however, soon after turned "loil ist," and was elected to Congress by the Radicials, but having been a "rebell" colonel" he woold not take the iron-clad oath, and hence could not take the iron-clad oath, yet, while
