

THE REPUBLICAN. CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 22, 1894. THE FLOW, EDOM AND ANVIL. The camp had its day of song. The wind, the bayonet, the plume, Have crowded out of rhyme too long. The flow, the edom, and the anvil, Oh, no more, no more, no more!

FARE OF THE DEVILS! Was there ever a more ridiculous force than the one lately played in an adjoining crowd in Congress, by the most miserable crowd of buffoons there assembled? R. F. Whittemore, resident of one of the New England States, carrying a member from South Carolina—was paid $2,000 for his nomination of a cadet to West Point. This is called venal!

A Court Scene. "Many a time and oft" have we laughed when we gazed upon the face of good old Judge—, who, some few years since, departed this life; for we never could see him without at bringing full in our mind a little incident which occurred in a court over which he presided, of which he, in the strict sense of the word, was made "the hero."

What does Congress mean? To run a snare on Grant or upon itself? Congress dishonestly! Behold a thief! B. F. Beak, senator B. F. Whittemore! An army of vultures dire about a single blackbird who has nibbles where they gorge themselves!

Parlor and Heating Stoves. In larger, better and cheaper than ever before exhibited to the public. His defect competition either in variety, quality or price.

Though he did "imbibe," as the world is pretty freely, and perhaps on some occasions a bit too strong, nevertheless no man could hold up his right hand, and while telling "the truth," say that the Judge was not a strong advocate of temperance. One very conclusive fact in proof of this was the particular severity he used in dealing out punishment to rumblers and rumbulators. The town authorities had, in the endeavor made to stop the traffic in strong drink, made every sufferer liable to a heavy fine for each and every offence in which he should be convicted.

Lincoln—Lincoln's female attachment—Cameron, Stanton, Seward, and an army of admirers, Congressmen, and other harlots who had keys to the administrative beehive. Who sold commissions to gutter snips, jail-birds, prison convicts, upstarts, loyal ignoramuses, known thieves, and men who know nothing of war—to shallow-brained, cowardly, uneducated military experimenters who lost armies after armies in their raids for spoons, cotton, mules and niggers?

Paints for Farmers and Others. THE Graham Mineral Paint Company are now manufacturing the best, cheapest and most durable paint ever made in this country, and it is a light green or beautiful chocolate color, and can be changed to green, red, blue, black, or any color, to suit the taste of the customer.

Put that Rascal Out—While the congregation were collected at church, on a certain occasion, an old hard-featured, skin and bone individual was wending his way up the aisle, and taking a seat near the pulpit. The officiating minister was one of that class who detest and written sermons, and as for prayers he thought they ought to be natural outpourings of the heart.

President Grant, the venal, thieving, corrupt, begging President of the United States! Who sells places in the departments at Washington to painted harlots, and hump-back mistresses—taking their pay and freedom to exorbitant climax, all at the expense of tax payers? Members of Congress—who the same cowardly thieves in power who dared not venture one of their own number, but with a yell of triumph shouted their "eyes" into the rotten body of a brother—a dead carpenter member of our national action mart!

Southern Land & Emigration COMPANY, WASHINGTON, D. C. ORGANIZED and established for the Purchase and Sale of Farming and Mineral Lands, and improved Real Estate in the Southern States.

Newton once invited a friend to dinner and found that the friend arrived found the philosopher in a fit of abstraction. Dinner was brought up for the friend, without disturbing Newton, sat down and dispatched it. Newton recovered from his reverie, looked at the empty dishes, and said: "Well, really, if it wasn't for the proof before my eyes, I could have sworn that I had not yielded."

HEALTH OF FARMERS.—There are seven reasons why farmers are healthier than professional men do: 1. They work more and develop all the leading muscles of the body. 2. They take exercise in the open air and breathe a greater amount of oxygen.

How to Save Money. THE times are hard, you'd like to know how you may save your dollars; the way to do it I will show, if you will read what follows. A man who lived not far from here, He got a good deal of his money, But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

Demographic Almanac. THIS invaluable publication is made at the post-office. It contains full election returns from every county in the United States; besides, the names of 1800 counties, a complete list of the names of all the newspapers suppressed and mangled during the war of the rebellion, and that for 1893 contains the names of all those citizens who were imprisoned during the same period. These two lists, for future reference, are worth more than the price of the publication. The number for 1893 is also full of valuable statistics. Any one sending 40 cents to the Post Master, will receive by return mail a copy for each year, free of postage.
