Mr. C. Kratzer, has been receiving the past week, a large invoice of spring and summer goods, at his rooms opposite the jail. Read his advertisements and then give him a call.

If any of our readers desire to invest in valuable real estate, we call their attention to advertisement of Mr. McIntyre, who offers a rare opportunity to any one who wishes to secure a farm.

A NEW CANDIDATE.—Our esteemed young friend, Fred. Sacketts, it will be observed by an advertisement elsewhere, has started out on his own hook, and desires the "world and the rest of mankind" to know that he is now engaged in the manufacture of all kinds of tin, and sheet iron ware.—Call and see him in his new quarters.

Go to Mrs. Watsons, Market Street, if you want to find the largest, best selected and most fashionable stock of Millinery Goods ever brought to Clearfield, which have been bought at very low prices in New York and Philadelphia, for cash. They have Bonnets, Hats, French Flowers, &c., in most elegant styles and endless variety.*

TOUGH, BUT TRUE!—A friend informs us that a pine tree was cut this winter, on land of Mr. E. A. Irvin, on Whitmer run, which scaled 5,487 feet. It produced 20, sixteen foot logs, one fourteen and one twelve. If that tree had not several branches we are mistaken that's all. We would like to own several hundred acres planted with such productive trees, if not too inconvenient, or embarrassing to our neighbors.

TO WATERMEN.—It gives us pleasure to announce that Mr. Wilkins, Superintendent of the Tyrone & Clearfield and Bald Eagle Valley Railroads, has made proper arrangements to run a through train from Lock Haven to Clearfield, during the rafting season. A passenger train will leave Lock Haven at 10.20 in the forenoon, and arrive at this place at 6 o'clock in the evening. This will enable those residing along the line of these roads to get home the same day. Passengers should be sure to purchase their tickets before entering the cars.

LEFT US.—Mr. David Johnston who has kept the "Mansion House" in this place for ten years past, has sold his interest in that establishment to Mr. John Dougherty, who took charge of the establishment on Tuesday.

Mr. Johnston has leased the "Merchants Hotel," located on the corner of 3d and Smithfield streets, in Pittsburgh, to which he and his family repaired on Monday last. He kept a good house while here and we have no doubt he will continue on in the same line. The citizens of this county who may visit the "smoky city," either on business or pleasure, will do well to call upon the Col. at his new quarters. The business will be conducted in the name of D. Johnson & Sons. See card elsewhere.

GONE TO TENNESSEE.—Ex. Governor Bigler, left his home again, last week, for the purpose of making an extended tour through East and Middle Tennessee; and South Eastern Kentucky, where with a number of Capitalists he has invested largely in lands. He spent several weeks in the early part of March, along the line of the Virginia and Tennessee railroad and on the head waters of the Cumberland, Holston and Tennessee rivers of which country he gives a glowing discription, two thirds of which is adapted to agricultural purposes with plenty of Timber, Iron, Coal and limestone, together with excellent water power, besides, being the finest climate in the world. The pioneer of the East, who sets out for the bleak Prairies, and hurricanes of the North West, to seek a comfortable home, jumps out of the frying pan into the fire, when he passes this intermediate Eden, where nature has endowed the earth with plenty, and an atmosphere that will reconstruct the northern consamptive and invalid, in six months, and rescue them from an untimely grave.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On Sunday night, the 20th ult., the residence of Mr. Levi Shuggars, of Pine Creek township, was struck by lighting, no serious damage done however. The house had on a lighting rod with two points, one each side of the chimney, which was in the centre of the building. It seems that the fluid discarded the points altogether and struck the chimney, passing down and demoralizing the stove in the sleeping apartment of Mr. Shuggars, passing from that point across the floor and under the bed where he and his wife were sleeping, tearing up a portion of the flooring, passing on down to the cellar and finally scattering as it struck the earth. Mr. and Mrs. Shuggars were somewhat stunned by the shock, but not seriously.—Brookville Republican.

A man named Libler recently died in Franconia township, Montgomery county without heirs and worth $11,000, which sum reverts to the Commonwealth—an unusual occurrence.

FARE TO CALIFORNIA.—The price of a ticket from Pittsburgh to San Francisco, Cal., by way of the Union Pacific Railroad is $150.00, and only five days are occupied in making the trip. At the opening of the Pacific R. R the fare was $215.00.

GOOD NEWS.—The New York Herald, a paper which never misses an opportunity of praising Grant, says he appointed a Boston youth to West Point without being paid for it. We are glad to hear that there is one little office which he neither sold nor gave to a relative.

LARGE COW.—A correspondent of the Lancaster Express writes from the Gap that one of the largest cows ever taken to Philadelphia market was sold at the Avenue Drove Yards on Monday the 28th. This animal was sold to P. M. Eaby, by John Hunshberger for $210. She weighed 2100 lb.

The Cambria Freeman says: John Coates, recently transferred from our county jail to the Penitentiary, was recognized at the latter institution as an old acquaintance, this being the fifth time he has appeared as an applicant for admission in compliance with the mandates of the law. Coates admitted having an accomplice in his last crime, but declined to tell who he was.

FLUNKEYISM.—While the ink was yet wet on the Presidential pen, after signing the fifteenth amendment proclamation, a note was handed him from a member of the press, requesting the gift of the pen. The President at once sent it out by a messenger, and General Dent wrote a note certifying to its identity. Before its owner left the ante-room a gentleman present offered him $50 for it, which was refused. The fools are evidently not all dead.

GRAVEL.—W. L. Gordon furnishes the Marietta Journal with a receipt to those afflicted with gravel. He says: "Take a common mullen leaf, boil a strong tea and drink it when you want water, tea or coffee. Let it be your constant drink for six or eight weeks: with cream or sugar, it makes an excellent table tea. I have been cured of the worst spells of gravel and kidney affections and have heard of many other cases of cure by the use of mullen leaf.

DISTRESSING.—A distressing accident occurred at Crestline, Ohio, on the 27 ult. A little girl about four years old, named Effie Gray, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Gray, fell into a washboiler of hot water, which her mother had placed on the floor, and before she could be extricated was so seriously scalded that her life is despaired of. Dexter Gray, the little girl's father, was burned to death some months ago at Upper Sandusky, by the explosion of a burning coal oil lamp, which he was endeavoring to carry out of his house.

DAMAGES FOR MOB VIOLENCE.—As heretofore stated, the Court of Appeals of Maryland, in the case of Daniel Dechert, Esq., of the Hagerstown Mail, against the mayor and corporation of Hagerstown, affirmed the judgment of the Circuit Court of Washington county. By this decision Mr. Dechert comes into possession of about $7,500. The suit was brought against the corporation for damages in allowing a mob to destroy Mr. Dechert's printing office, in the year 1862. The State Legislature also has passed a law to indemnify Wm. Shaw, of Carroll county, for destruction of his printing office in Westminister by a mob during the war.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—In a case in the Supreme court of the United States in which the heirs of a rebel soldier were plaintiffs claiming the confiscated property of their father, the decision was rendered in favor of the claimants on Monday. The opinion was delivered by Judge Strong, and was his first. This decision is one of very great importance, as it decides that the sale of property confiscated for participating in the rebellion is only good for the lifetime of the owner, and that at his death it reverts to his heirs. A wag at our elbow suggests that the purchasers of all such property combine together and have the lives of all these late owners insured at once, or else have congress pass an act perpetuating their existence forever. It is a wonder that Judge Strong's loyal soul allowed him to follow the letter of the Constitution, by which he compelled his rascally friends to give up the property they had stolen from their neighbors during the war. The Constitution being now embalmed by the negro, the Judge and his friends may have some respect for that instrument in the future. But they had better be sworn again to make the thing safe.

SETTLED.—A Mrs. Shugart, who about 18 months ago poisened her husband, and convicted and sentenced to be hanged, was last week pronounced insane, by a committee of Physicians. The Court, then in session, caused a jury to be called, who, upon the evidence, decided her to be insane. On this verdict the Court made an order directing her to be taken to the Hospital. We now hope this may be the end of the affair. When God takes in his own hand the punishment of a criminal, let not man interfere.

It is not the great occasion, but the great spirit that crowns and glorifies our work.
