Suppose my little lady
Your doll should break her head,
Could you make it whole by crying
Till your cree and nose ever red?
And wouldn't it be pleasanter
To treat it as a joke;

And may you're glad 'twas Dolly's, And not your head that broke! Suppose you're dressed for walking,
And the rain comes pouring down,
Will it clear off any anoter
Because you soold and frown?
And wouldn't it be nicer
For you to smile than pout,
And so make sunshine in the house
When there is none without?

Suppose your task my little man, is very hard to get, it was to man, is very hard to get, will it make it any earlier For you to ait and fret? And wealthn't it be wriser, Than waiting like a dunce, To go to work in samera!

And learn the things at once?

Suppose that some boys have a horse
And some a coach and pair.
Will it tire you less while walking
To say "si ten't fair?"
And wouldn't it be nobler
To keep your tempre evect,
And in your heart be thankful
You er " walk apon your feet?

Suppose the world don't please you. Nor the way some people do, Do you think the whole creation Do you think the whole eccation
Will be altered just for you?
And len't it, my boy or girl,
The wissest, bravest plan,
Whatever comes, or doesn't come,
To do the best you can?
