Enchanted Morntain in Georgia. In one of the northeastern countles d Georgia, and less than a bundred miles from Chattanooga is a natural curiosity called, from Indian tradition, the Enchanted Mountain.

The mountain is not large and there is nothing remarkable about it until you get on top, when human tracks, or impressions in the solid rock which appear to be human tracks, are seen,

How these almost human tracks came to be impressed on the rock of this mountain, is one of the many mysteries of this mysterious land of ours. There are a great many traditions NEW SERIES--VOL. 10, NO. 44. among the Indians in regard to this mountain, but none of them are satis factory, and it probably never be known who it was that left their tracks upon the summit of the Euchanted Mountain. One of the Indian traditions is curious, for it shows that they had a vague idea of Nonh's flood before the advent of the white man. The story had been handed down among the aborigines that was the landing place of the great cance, after the delage, and the tracks were made by the people in the canoe, as they steped out upon the rock which had been made soft by the long inun-
