THE PARTING HOUR

There's something in the "parting boar"
Will chill the warmest heart—
Yet kindred, cournedue, lovers, friends,
Are fared all to part!
But this Free seen—and many a pang
Has pressed it on my mind—
Yhe one who goes it happier
Thus these he leaves behind.

No matter what the journey be,
Altentures, dangerous, far,
To the wild deep ur bleak frontier,
To satisfact, or war.
Still semething cheers the heart that dares
In all of human kind,
And they who ye are happier.
Than these they leave behind.

BY EDWARD POLLOCK.
