THE LATE FLOOD.—The sudden rise in the streams in Centre, Clinton and Lycoming counties, two weeks ago, resulted in much local damage, besides heavy loss to a number of our Lumbermen, who had timber in the river at and below Lock Haven.

The Clinton Democrat of last week says:
"The flood in the Susquehanna reached its height of eight feet on last Saturday morning. There was a large number of rafts tied up at Lockport, about seventy-five or eighty of which are believed to have been carried down. The boom held securely, and no logs were lost out of it. It became very much packed, and I anticipate a very great strain. There was no casualty on the river. A man and his raft came over Queen's Run dam, which gave rise to the report of two men being drowned there.

The man was washed off his raft, but succeeded in getting on again by swimming. It was carried down and ran into the boom here, breaking to pieces, and running under the logs.

The man seemed unconcerned about the matter, and manifested more regret over the loss of his old hat than anything else.

A large number of logs had been rafted out, most of which were carried away. The following are some of the parties whose logs went down: Best,

Dickinson & Hopkins, about 6,000 logs; W. A. Simpson, 6 to 7,000; Satterlee, about 3,500; Shaw, Blanchard & Bickford, about 3,000; E. M.

Bickford, about 300; besides smaller losses by men who had caught drift logs, and rafted them along shore.

Chatham's Lion was very high, we are informed, and turbulent. The mill of Napp & Townsend was very much injured, and a large number of their logs were carried off.

THE BALD EAGLE
was up yesterday and it has been for many years higher than in 1865, the citizens at Flemington say. The water was not so high at this place, because the river was not so high as in 1865, which backed up the water then to a greater extent; but the stream above was higher. The boom held safely. No injury was done save to the crops on the bottom land from Flemington, which was completely under water, and the heavy rain which fell in the Hawkins brook at that point. The only casualty there was the drowning of young Walker in attempting to cross from the bridge over to dry land on the Mill Hill side.

IN WILLIAMSPORT,
on Saturday morning, the water was 19 feet 9 inches above low water mark.

The loss of logs there is given by the West Branch Bulletin as follows:

"Dodg & Co., one million feet logs;

H. James & Co., one million; J. V.
Brown & Co., one million; J. A. Otto

& Son, 250,000 feet; John DuBois,

250,000 feet; G. Tinsman, 250,000;

Cook, Slonaker & Co., 200,000 feet;

Democratic County Convention.

The Return Judges of the several Election districts in this county, met in Convention at the Arbitration Room in the Court House, on Tuesday, the 14th instant, in accordance with the rules governing the holding of the Primary Election, for the purpose of opening and counting the votes cast for the several candidates on the Saturday previous. The Chairman of the County Committee called the Convention to order at 2 o'clock, P. M., and upon calling the names of the several districts, all were found to be represented but four, which came in before the vote was counted. On motion S. P. Wilson, of Bradford, and A. W. Lee, of Clearfield, were elected clerk, and the Convention proceeded to open and count the votes, which being done, the Convention declared—John G. Hall, of Ridgeway, J. E. Fry,

David Buck, A. W. Walters, Jacob A.
Faust, and D. Aaron Wise, nominated for the respective offices for which they were named. There being no one announced for the office of Coroner, on motion of Mr. Porter, of Lawrence, S. A. Caldwell, Esq., of Bradford township, was nominated for Coroner. The Convention then proceeded to the selection of a County Committee for 1871. On motion of G. L. Schoon-over of Morris, seconded by S. P. Wilson of Bradford, J. Blake Walters was re-elected Chairman, and on motion of Eli Bloom, Ebra Brown, of Lawrence, was elected Secretary.

The following named gentlemen were then selected as a
