New Bell -We learn that the Presbyterian Congregation has purchased, and will shortly put in position a splendid bell for their new Church building, which by the way, is one of the finest country structures in the Union. We hope that a few more Church bells will break up the promiscuous manner of going to Church in this town. The habit of a large portion of the congregation entering the Church after the minister has commenced his sermon, is enough to make a Saint swear, and if bells will break up this habit, we advise our Lutheran and Baptist friends to secure them soon.
