Republican Performances. The issue this fall is between Republicanism and Democratic promises.

The Democratic ticket is the 21st Senatorial district composed of the counties of Centre, Blair, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin and Perry.

Metz, so often spoken of in the cable dispatches, and at which the French troops were first concentrated, is a French fortified city, capital of the Department of the Moselle.

There lives now in Coffee county, Tennessee, an old man in his 80th year—Gen. Wm. Moore.

The Democratic party promises to restore what it had created, viz: The common liberties of the American people.

The Republic. The past week has been a week of slaughter in France.

The latest news are to the effect that the armies under the command of these two officers have been surrendered to the King of Prussia.

Napoleon in his letter to the King of Prussia said: "As I cannot die at the head of my army, I lay my sword at the feet of your majesty."

Gov. Geary's Proclamation. We say it with regret and shame—shame for the good old Commonwealth.

Heretofore, whatever a man, vain and unsubstantial in mind, could have been reasonably expected to do to render himself ridiculous he has done.

We scarcely know how to treat this Governor of Pennsylvania. His conduct, since ill fortune placed him in the Executive chair, has been such that, while we respect and would honor the office, we are compelled to despise the man.

An investigation is being made into the affairs of the late Philip B. Metz, the banker who committed suicide at Pottsville.

Grant writes from Newport, R. I. to DeWitt T. Moore, agent of the W. & A. R. R. Co. in Washington.

Now, giving to Governor Geary the full weight of the extraordinary reputation he bears in this community for truth and integrity.

The New York Times says: "It certainly is a most singular fact that no official representative of the Government, the army, or the navy, was present at Admiral Farragut's funeral last week."

There is one paragraph in the Tariff bill devoted to "silk, rubber and hemp."

The Government's Share. A case reported in South Carolina, illustrates how officials employed to protect its interests prey upon the government.
