Mow to Save Money.

THE times are herd; you'd like to know How you miy save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a honsehold to support That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough;

I've tried to got myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go To get a cult that's sound and cheap: To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what liftle he had saved,

And went to Retocastein & Brothers', And there he get a handsome suit, For helf he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so wall, And their effect is runh. That when they take their daily meal, They don't cat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night,

With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all.

If you'd cave money, go and buy Your clother at-
