How to Save Money.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; he way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows,

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade int had a household to support. That squandered all he made.

I met him ones. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a sui But can't save up snough."

Says I, my friend, bow much have you? I'll tail you where to go To get a sait that's samed and cheap: To REIZENSTEIN 4 Co.

He took what little he had saved,

And went to Reisenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others. Now he is bome, he looks as well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much.

And new he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied, That he has stoney left to spend,

And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful amile, He gladly tells to all, If you'd save money, go and buy Your clothes at-
