What was the explanation of Lee's paucity of troops? Why did that army which had numbered 67,000 bayonets at Gettysburg, now number only about 40,000? It would require a volume to answer these questions.

Modern Professions.—The title of "professor" has of late become so common that those who are legally entitled to it have become disgusted with the whole manner in which it is used.

CONCLUSION.—I would merely re-iterate a former recommendation, that the military appropriations be asked for barracks, clothing, and other necessities of our soldiers.

Wan Pictorial.—A Berlin letter gives a graphic picture of the distress which prevails everywhere throughout Germany.
