

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor and Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 15, 1873.

Gen. Frank P. Blair, Democratic candidate for Vice President in 1868, was on Tuesday last elected United States Senator by the Missouri Legislature.

"GEN. HARRY."—The sudden death of Covode leaves a clear field for Gen. White in the southern section of the State as a Radical candidate for Governor.

GENE—Wait, the Radical Senator who stole the seat from Dimond, Democrat, and Covode, who stole the seat of Gen. Foster, in Congress, has suddenly been called to settle their final account. A few more deaths of similar characters will break up the consistency business. Coasa and Schenck had better look out.

INCONSISTENT.—Senator Yates of Illinois, introduced a petition in the Senate the other day for the recognition of the Almighty in the Constitution. It might not be a bad idea for Richard to do a little recognizing that way in his own proper person—"Drunk Dick," as he is called at home, is always ready to reform everything and everybody but himself.

DISAPPOINTED.—Bishop Ames has failed in having himself appointed as one of Grant's Commissioners to steal San Domingo. Although the Bishop labored to get on the Committee, the job is so mean that even the negro, Fred Douglass, refused to accept the appointment. Bishop Simpson, and at least four scores of other white and black Republicans, have refused to accept, yet Ames wants to go.

SECRET INVESTIGATION.—The robbery and plundering which has been going on for a number of years in the Methodist Book Concern, at New York, is at length being investigated by a proper Committee; but we are sorry to learn that the investigation is being carried on in secret session—an inquisition instead of an investigation. If those clergy in charge of the Concern have been robbing the people, why not expose them like other villains? If innocent, let their innocence be established without any white-washing, and as speedily as possible. The half of the concern having been stolen from the Church South, years ago, we presume those in charge of it supposed they had the right to accumulate property in a similar way—hence the little unpleasantness on hand now.

DEAD.—Congressman John Covode died suddenly at the United States Hotel, in Harrisburg, on the 11th. He was hale and hearty in the evening, and by 4 a. m., was dead. He was also Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.

Ephraim Banks, a well known politician, and six years Auditor General of this State, died the same day, at his home in Lewistown.

J. C. Campbell, a Democratic member of the Legislature from Philadelphia, died at his home in that city the same day.

Hon. Alex. King, President Judge of the Seventeenth Judicial District of Pennsylvania, died at his residence in Bedford, on Tuesday, the 10th.

Hon. John Hickman, ex-Congressman, and for many years a prominent politician, died at his home in West Chester, on Friday last, in the 61st year of his age.

TART.—The Philadelphia Post says: "If you want to get an office from the Legislators of Senators at Harrisburg, put yourself under training as a prize fighter, kick up a tremendous row, kill off a man or two, make yourself notorious as a bully, and demonstrate to the world that you are always ready and anxious to disturb the peace of the community."

That is a hard bit at the Radicals of the House, who made the notorious denunciation of Wm. J. Orens Sergeant at Harrisburg, put yourself under training as a prize fighter, kick up a tremendous row, kill off a man or two, make yourself notorious as a bully, and demonstrate to the world that you are always ready and anxious to disturb the peace of the community."

MACKAY ELECTED.—The election for State Treasurer was held in joint convention of the Legislature at Harrisburg, on Wednesday. The nominee of the Republicans was R. W. Mackay, of Pittsburgh, and the nominee of the Democrats was Daniel O. Barr, of the same city. The vote stood—Mackay, 70; Barr, 60. Where are the recalcitrant, retrenchment and reform Republicans who brought about Mackay's defeat last winter?

GRANT'S WHISKY RING.—All the Grant folks smell of whisky. A few days since we published a letter from Orville S. Grant, long known in Chicago for his relations to the whisky ring, in which the writer urged the President to remove certain Republicans of officials in Chicago, on the ground of their complicity with the frauds of various whisky distillers of that vicinity. Mr. Orville Grant, after having detailed certain fraudulent transactions, wrote: "These are the facts that I most positively know, can swear to them, and can prove every word of them by men under oath." Now this confident gentleman retracts his letter, and says that he was "misinformed and prejudiced," and that, having "unintentionally" "prejudged the President against honorable men and good officers," he has since made amends by recommending that they be retained in office. Mr. Orville Grant's whisky ring is now to him, then it was not. That is all things he says.

The iron railroad bridge over the Ohio at Parkersburg, West Va., connecting the Baltimore and Ohio and Marietta and Cincinnati railroads, was completed on Saturday. The bridge is over 4,000 feet long, and cost $1,000,000.

The New Legislature.
