"Sheridan's Ride" will be found on fourth page, to which we call the attention School Directors.

Persons wanting anything done in dress-making line, should give Mrs. Way Miss Jones a call. See advertisement.

You will see by referring to our advertisements that our friend Dr. A. M. Hills, concluded to paddle his own canoe.

PARADE.—Philipsburg is to have a and Odd Fellows' parade, lecture and dinner, on 22d. How is Clearfield going to celebrate Washington's birthday?

THE WATER WORKS.—On our first page will be found the bill, now before the Legislature, relating to the erection of Water Works this borough. Let every resident give the bill an attentive perusal.

A NEW LODGE.—We learn that a Lodge of the I. O. of O. F. will be instituted at Troutville, Brady township, on Friday night next. We are pleased to learn that a Lodge is to be opened in that populous section of our county.

ELECTED PRESIDENT.—We notice that our esteemed friend Capt. R. H. McCormick, at the Cherry Tree, has been elected President of the Homer, Cherry Tree and Susquehanna Railroad. If the company should adopt the "pass" business, we hope the Captain will not neglect a nameless chap down this way.

A new era in the history of Philipsburg, is that at the Ironside Store, heating stoves of the latest and best improvements are being disposed of at prices so low that all failing to purchase now will have cause to experience a life-long regret. This statement is not made for a sensation, but is a bona fide truth. Come and see.

THE POWER OF ADVERTISING.—Last week James B. Graham & Sons advertised that they would sell their entire stock of goods at cost, and such is the power of advertising that they disposed of their whole stock in three days after the REPUBLICAN was issued—to Messrs. Miller & Powell, who intend continuing the business at the old stand. Read their advertisement.

EXCUSE US.—We have at least a score of written, and double that number of personal requests, to publish the names of the Harder Jury. This we deem unnecessary. There has been enough said and written upon this matter to answer all practical purposes. Too much of a good thing is often productive of evil. To our mind we have pursued the question far enough, and we hope our friends will take a similar view.

MORE WILD CAT.—Mr. Jno. B. Wallace of Huston township, this county, caught on the 19th of January, one weighing 28 lbs., and measuring 4 feet 7 inches from tip to tip. It was young but in extremely good condition. John feels very proud over his prize, he being a young lad only 13 years old. John will get a good scratching yet if he don't quit meddling with those "pussy cats."

IN ORDER.—The schoolrooms at the Academy have been completely renovated and beautified. Much credit is due to the Trustees for their promptness in making the improvements and in the taste displayed by them in fitting up these rooms in the best possible manner, their cleanliness, beauty and comfort compare favorably with any in the State, and is due the consideration of all. We hope that Prof. Harrison will be duly patronized.

DR. S. P. SHAW.—The card of our young friend will be found in this issue. The spirit of enterprise has certainly found a successful champion in him. His rooms in the Masonic Hall building are gorgeously fitted up—none better anywhere outside of the great cities. He is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Dental Science, and with his new instruments and easy chairs will render the extrication of teeth more pleasant than many imagine. Call and see him, whether you have the toothache or not.

PROGRESSING.—We notice that the survey of the Homer, Cherry Tree and Susquehanna Railroad has been completed, and that the Chief Engineer, Mr. C. M. Baird, has made his report to the Directors. The distance from Homer (on the Indiana Branch,) to the Cherry Tree, (Grant Postoffice) is 20 miles. The estimated cost for grading, masonry and ballasting, is $94,000, and for superstructures $164,000; making a total of $258,400, or about $13,000 per mile. The friends of this road are in high glee and look to an early completion of the line. A portion of the road will be let this week, and the contractors expect to commence work by the middle of March.

CHANGING, TOO.—We notice that quite a number of counties, (among them Cambria and Indiana) are applying to the Legislature for a change in the mode of collecting their taxes, similar to the law under which they were collected in this county last year. The law is good. There can be no better act devised, provided the Treasurer is not too fearful of his popularity and understands his duties. A good law is no remedy for an ignorant and incompetent officer. In fact there are none who object to the law in this county except a few professional collectors, who growl like bears with sore heads. The day is not far distant when the system now in force in this county will be adopted by all the counties.

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS.—There is to be an exhibition of 51 grand original paintings, in the Court House, on the evenings of the 22d and 23d instant, commencing at 7½ o'clock.

This grand panorama of paintings are founded on Pilgrim's Progress to the Celestial City, displaying in the striking and impressive scenes, the incidents and characters brought forth in the works of John Bunyan. The paintings are all original and are regarded by competent judges as the finest specimens of art now before the American public. Indeed it is maintained by many that the world can produce nothing of a similar character to excell them. They have been uniformly commended by the press, and the influence upon the public of their exhibitions are generally endorsed by the clergy. It is enough to say that they were exhibited for 120 nights in the Musical Fund Hall, in Philadelphia, with constantly increasing patronage.

The exhibition of paintings will be accompanied with a delightful and instructive lecture and also with the finest vocal music.

Admission 25 cents for children, and 35 cents for adults. Tickets to be had at nearly all the stores in town.

We say come—come one, come all—not only in town, but from every part of the county, for you may never again have the opportunity of seeing these wonderful paintings.

Public Notice.

TO ALL HOTEL KEEPERS, SALOON KEEPERS AND DRUGGISTS IN THE BOROUGH OF CLEARFIELD.

I have in my possession a petition signed by over seventy citizens of said borough requesting me to notify you not to give intoxicating drink of any kind to persons who are in the habit of becoming intoxicated, and in making this request be it understood that I have nothing personal against any of you who sell liquor according to law; but I have something against this thing of making men drunk, so that they have neither sense nor reason. Much less have I aught against those weak-minded persons who spend their money, destroying themselves and offending the community, for every person is disgusted with a drunkard (even the man who sells to him) and if none but those who drink were to bear the trouble growing out of it, I for one, would leave it with you and them. But if you would accompany me to the drunkard's home and see the wife and children turned out of the house in a cold winter night at from 10 to 1 o'clock, and hear her and her children with tears streaming and crying, asking protection even of strangers, and sometimes with a warrant, and sometimes without, seeking an officer and a shelter for the night and for the arrest of the father and husband. Such cases are frequent. I have seen mothers walking around town at night so timid that they might be taken for eavesdroppers or felons peeping into Hotels and Saloons, trying to get a glimpse of the husband or son (when at the same time they are most likely in some back office or shop finishing upon a bottle or two of Mishler, Boyer, or some other bitters.) Were you to witness the agony of the mother or wife in trouble for a loved husband or dear boy, pacing her room for half the night and laying sleepless the other half thinking and praying for the lost one; (for she sometimes thinks him lost) with alternate passions, sometimes in love and sometimes in anger, and if you would talk with the distressed father, surely you would have manhood enough—if you did lack humanity—to refuse those men liquor who cannot control their appetites. Some of you belong to churches of different denominations, and I think all of you believe in a God who will reward the righteous and punish the guilty. Oh, think of Eternity, and your duty to your fellow-man, and be consistent. Do not let the love of gain tempt you to make those men insane. I know you will be more pleased with yourselves and sleep sounder without this part of the gain than with it. I will admit that there are church members of every denomination in every line of business so inconsistent that they suffer the love of dimes and dollars to tempt them to do that which is not right. But from none of these arise such dire consequences as from the illicit traffic of strong drink. My protest was exhibited only about three hours, and over seventy of our most respectable citizens signed it. I had not time to circulate it, but I am certain that I could obtain twice that number more in our borough. All are ready to assist and do everything reasonable to stop drunkenness, especially on the street; and they ask you to refuse all men liquor who are in the habit of becoming intoxicated. Do we ask that which is unreasonable? We are often called upon to protect you, and your duty as members of society is to do the best you can for the good of society. Like the rest of us you are making your living off the community, then, live for others as well as self. We ask you not to make that father or son drunk so that his own family are ashamed to look on him. Were it possible for you to fathom the feelings of a father or mother, or that sister, you would certainly desist. Never having experienced those feelings, probably you cannot realize them. You know those men better than we do, and cannot say that they get drunk without your aid. I tell you nay; you can discover every man who takes it second-handed, and if you do your duty they cannot deceive you more than once. You know their associates. Do not give liquor to any person you suspect. Men engaged in your business should be men of strong mind, who would not be afraid or ashamed to say to those in the habit of drinking, you cannot have it.

I take the liberty of stating that I will withhold the protest and names in question for a while, and give this notice hoping that it will have a good effect, and in the future prevent the exposure of sellers and drinkers. God knows we are your friends, real friends, and would do nothing to injure you personally or in the eyes of your fellows. But if this has no effect in abating the nuisance in question the citizens and officers of this borough are determined on having something done, and may take a course which will not be agreeable to some.

In looking over the foregoing I am almost tempted to commit it to the flames. Those who can write, will not. But considering the necessity, and hoping you may understand the hints herein contained I give it in my rude manner, and by adopting the line of duty indicated you will confer a lasting favor on your humble servant, and very many of your fellow-citizens.

WM. PORTER, J. P.

February, 1871.

MUSICAL.—"Among the thousand and one Pianos offered to the public, we scarcely know any instrument so fully uniting all the desirable qualities sought for as the Knabe Piano. It is a matter of some difficulty and perplexity to inexperienced persons to select a good instrument of any capacity. We too often rely upon the judgment of friends in the selection of a Piano, and are thus frequently disappointed. The only sure way, in our opinion, is to go to the best maker. For this reason, we recommend to our readers to purchase Pianos of William Knabe & Co's manufacture. This will relieve them the vexatious necessity of wasting time in a long search. The reputation of the Knabe Pianos is an infallible guaranty of excellence. In the houses of the most accomplished and wealthy of our citizens, and in our best seminaries and colleges, these magnificent instruments may be found. Nor is this any wonder, for, in purity, depth and constancy of tone, they are unsurpassed. Their gradation of scale is so exquisitely, and, at the same time, comprehensively attuned, that they are capable of expressing every emotion of the human heart and soul. Their tone is exquisitely pure and unique, and so even, sweet and sympathetic that it inspires all who listen to it, while at the same time the action is perfectly free, and the keys respond to the touch with such sensitiveness and intelligence, so to speak, as to make one almost think that the mind of the manufacturer lingers in his work.

SIAMESE TWINS OUTDONE.—On Saturday last we were shown, by Dr. McKnight, a specimen—or specimens—of humanity that for rarity exceeds the famous Siamese Twins. It was two children apparently, yet but one, as they were firmly and perfectly connected from the middle of the breast bone to below the navel, and appeared to have but one bowel. In all other respects they were perfect and comely children.

From the Doctor we learn the following facts relative to this case: On Friday last the Doctor was summoned to attend Mrs. Rockey, of Warsaw township, and on reaching her residence found her in convulsions, she having been sick eighteen hours. Owing to the severity of the labor the children were dead, and the condition of the mother made it necessary, to save her life, to remove the children immediately, which the Doctor did with his instruments. She had over thirty convulsions in twenty four hours.

The child—or children—weighed 14 pounds, measured twenty-two inches in length, and were both girls. The Doctor has had them photographed for the benefit of science.

The mother, Mrs. Rockey, is quite young, only seventeen years old, and belongs to one of our best families. We learn she is in a fair way of recovery.—Brookville Republican.

TO THE TRADE.—I desire to call the attention of the trade to my stock of lake fish, having, for the past thirteen years, made this branch of business a specialty. My stock, at this time, is the largest ever held in this city. I am prepared to furnish dealers, promptly, by the dray or car load, and have made arrangements for shipping by the car load, at special rates, from Detroit, Sandusky, Huron, Vermillion or Cleveland, and also from Pittsburgh to any points in Pennsylvania or Ohio, as shippers may wish. I would also call the attention of dealers to my extensive assortment and stock of corn brooms, broom corn, and broom materials, all of which I can supply at very low rates.

JAMES CONNOR,

Dr. Frederick Platte, formerly of Syracuse, N. Y., requests us to announce to the citizens of Clearfield and vicinity that he has permanently located among them, and is ready to answer all professional calls. For the present, and until he completes his office, he may be found at the Leonard House.

PROGRESS.—Conductor Irwin has a new train complete, engine, tender, coaches and all, with the patent air brake now in use on the main line attached. The new cars made their first trip over the road on Monday. So says the Philipsburg Journal.

BUY IT.—Mr. Gaulin keeps the World Almanac for sale at the Post-office. This is the best publication of the kind. Mailed to any address on the receipt of 20 cents.

The Rt. Rev. J. B. Kerfoot, Bishop of Pittsburgh, will preach in St. Andrew's Church, Clearfield, on Friday evening, February 24th, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

A Notorious Fact!

THERE are more people troubled with Lung Diseases in this town than any other place of its size in the State. One of the great causes of this is, the use of an impure article of Coal, largely mixed with sulphur. Now, why not avoid all this, and preserve your lives, by using only Humphrey's Celebrated Coal, free from all impurities. Orders left at the stores of Richard Mossop and James B. How to Save Money.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know
How you may save your dollars;
The way to do it I will show,
If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here,
Who worked hard at his trade,
But had a household to support
That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend,
I look thread-bear and rough;
I've tried to get myself a suit,
But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you?
I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's sound and cheap:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved,
And went to Reizenstein & Brothers',
And there he got a handsome suit,
For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks as well,
And their effect is such,
That when they take their daily meal,
They don't eat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night,
With all their wants supplied,
That he has money left to spend,
And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile,
He gladly tells to all,
If you'd save money, go and buy
Your clothes at—

REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL.
