How to Save Money. THE times are hard; you'd like to know

How you may save your dellars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what fellows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made. I met him once. Baye he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to got myralf a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go To get a suit that's sound and cheap: To REIRENSTEIN & Co.

Re took what little he had saved, And went to Reisenstein & Heathers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others. Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much.
