And sall it down with a little free lives.
To please the folks in Brocklyn.

Wones. I do not think that people need.
Any particular kind of creed.
So long as fashionable lives they lead.
And buy their religion in Brooklyn;
I don't care if they go to balls.
And take "three days for New Year's calls."
Or over in Wall street make great hauls.
If they only come down in Brooklyn.

FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH.

The Distressing Suicide of a Young Lady in Elmirs, N. V. Miss Della Benson, a very fine look-ing, intelligent and estimable lady, 24 years of age, died at the residence of Joseph Billette, on Clinton street, El-mira, on Saturday afternoon. Coromira, on Saturday afternoon. Gero-ner Meisel investigated the cause of her death, and found that it was eaus ed by strychnine, which she had taken. From information obtained from her sequaintances, and letters addressed to her which have been found, it seems that Miss Benson and Mr. Ward Hodgkins, of New York, had for some time past been engaged to be married

This engagement is reported to have been consumated a year ago last July. Since that time the parties had

Please send me my letters and pic-ture and I will return yours. That jewelry that you said that you would never give up, you can keep

Soon after receiving this letter Miss Benson went to her room, and when she again made her appearance Mrs. Billette noticed something unusual in her appearance. Upon inquiring as to what she had been doing, she stated pose of causing her death. She atated that she had taken strychnine, supposing that would produce unconusness and death without pain. Dr. Morse was sent for, but no rem
