CONDITION OF THE SOUTH. The New York Observer, a religious paper in its issue of the 6th inst., publishes the following letter with a few prefatory remarks by the editor.

As a patriotic citizen, as well as the editor of a journal of wide circulation and extensive influence, it is your duty, and I have no doubt it is your right to obtain all the information in your power as to the history of the disturbances prevailing in South Carolina as well as their origin and the remedy for them.

The Moral Lubricator. The great moral lubricator which makes everything in human life run without friction, is good temper. As soon as this is exhausted, the journals of the human mind begin to heat, and wear and tear ensue.

What Real Love Is. Many women suppose they love their husbands, and unfortunately they have not the beginning of an idea what love is. Loving to be admired by a man, loving to be petted by him, and loving to be praised by him, is not loving him.

Live Stock. On Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, at Harkness Bazaar, Ninth and Sanson streets, Philadelphia, a large sale was held of imported Jersey and Guernsey cows and heifers, ponies, pigs and dogs...

The Murderer Rolloff. Professor Mather, of Amherst College, writes to the Springfield Republican a full account of a recent interview with Rolloff in the jail at Binghamton. He says: "On one or two passages of 'Home' in particular Rolloff showed great sensibility of criticism, and a most thorough appreciation of the grandeur of the sentiment."

What Real Love Is. Many women suppose they love their husbands, and unfortunately they have not the beginning of an idea what love is. Loving to be admired by a man, loving to be petted by him, and loving to be praised by him, is not loving him.

How to make time go fast—Use the spur of the moment. The best band to accompany a lady vocalist—a husband.
