THE REPUBLICAN.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 24, 1871.

THE VANITY OF LIFE.

How swiftly pass our years away,
Our joys how swiftly they decay,
Just like a transient flower we bloom;
Quickly we run o'er life's short stage,
We fly from infancy to age,
Then rest forgotten in the tomb.

The things of time engage our care,
The treasures of the world we share,
While joyful hope the soul inspires,
We seek for riches, titles, fame,
To immortalize an empty name,
And satisfy our vain desires.

We seldom look beyond the grave
Where come the tim'rous and the brave,
To lay their heavy burdens down;
Where safe from storm the weary rest,
Where anguish gnaws no troubled breast,
Where all mankind shall find a home.

Religion can alone bestow
True happiness on man below,
Or give admission to the skies;
'Tis this can save him when his breath,
Is fled away, and ghastly death
Has closed with heavy sleep his eyes.

This can support him in that day,
When earth and skies shall pass away,
And be dissolved in liquid fire;
Safe shall he stand upon a rock,
And with composure hear the shock
That bids the universe expire.

Another Link Gone.

The chain of great statesmen is constantly breaking. Hon. James M. Mason, whose death had been for some days expected, died recently, at Clarens, three miles west of Alexandria, Va., where he had been living for a year or two past, and whither he had removed from Winchester.—Mr. Mason's position among the distinguished men of the times is an eminently historical one, full of events and honors, and enriched with a brilliant family prestige. For several years he was a member of the Virginia Legislature, and in 1837 was elected to the United States House of Representatives. Subsequently he was a leading member of the United States Senate, and for several years was Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. At the breaking out of the late war he left that body, along with the other Southern Senators, and in November, 1861, he embarked with Mr. Slidell, at Havana, on board the British royal mail steamer Trent, for Southampton, accredited respectively as envoys from the Confederate States of the South to the courts of Great Britain and France. A few hours afterwards the Trent was overhauled by the U. S. Steamer San Jacinto, Commodore Wilkes, and the surrender of Messrs. Mason and Slidell demanded by him. They were surrendered, and imprisoned for some weeks at Fort Warren, in Boston harbor, whence they were liberated on the peremptory demand of the British government, and sailed for England in January, 1862. Wilkes, who was greatly lauded at first for the act, both by Congress and the Cabinet, was soon afterward summoned before a court martial composed of naval officers, and by them adjudged guilty of gross offenses and sentenced to suspension for three years. Mr. Mason remained abroad for some years after the termination of hostilities, and on his return to Virginia took up his residence, as already stated, near Alexandria.—For some time past his health had been failing, and within the last month he had lost his eyesight. He died of general debility, his nervous system being generally deranged. He had been unconscious for a day or two, and died very peacefully. Mr. Mason leaves an estate of about $60,000. He was in the 73d year of his age.

An Encouraging Sign.

Col. C. M. Hamilton, lately Representative in Congress from the State of Florida, has published evidence to show that the Rev. A. C. Osborn, D. D., of Brooklyn, brother of T. W. Osborn, a Senator of the United States from Florida, has attempted to bribe him with 2,500 shares in the stock of the Great Southern Railroad Company, and with a draft for $20,000 upon a bank in New York, to work and vote for a grant of Government lands to aid in the construction of that proposed railroad. In this speculation Senator Osborn was also a holder of 2,500 shares of stock, worth at par $250,000; and the impression is conveyed by the documents which Col. Hamilton publishes, that the Senator was also a party to the offer of bribes.

Indignation is expressed in various quarters at these revelations. We are glad to see a manifestation of such honorable feeling. It shows that, notwithstanding the fact that President Grant has bestowed the highest offices in the Government in return for presents, and has retained in a most conspicuous place in the State Department a man who has been proved by the Legislature of Massachusetts to have taken a bribe to betray his clients and defraud his constituents—notwithstanding all these evidences of corruption and demoralization in the highest spheres of the Government, and notwithstanding the support and approbation which the Republican party bestows upon this corruption and this bribe-taking, there is still among the people an honest sense of the difference between right and wrong, and an honest hostility to such corruption as Grant exhibits and encourages and the Republican party adopts and approves.

GRANT'S VERACITY.—In his Indianapolis speech General Grant said that he had no intention of coming to Indianapolis until he met Senator Morton at Pittsburgh, by whose soft persuasions he was induced to make the Indiana visit. It is a well known fact in railroad circles that two of Pullmon's fine sleeping coaches were despatched from Harrisburg to Baltimore the Saturday previous, there to await the Presidential party. One of them, known as President Tom Scott's car, was assigned for Senator Morton, and the other, (the Jewett car,) was placed at the disposal of President Grant. These two cars, containing the royal and Santo Domingo party left Baltimore on Thursday night at 10 o'clock, and in due time arrived in Pittsburgh jointly. It was here that Grant says he first met Morton, having travelled with him from Washington in the Pulman cars, and there it was from the time they started at Washington that the Indiana visit was "cooked up."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A lunatic, named McGinness, is trying to get possession of the Presidential chair. Many Radicals are so much discontented with the present incumbent of it that they would be willing to give McGinness a trial. He could hardly do worse than the author of the San Domingo job.

How to Save Money.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know
How you may save your dollars;
The way to do it I will show,
If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here,
Who worked hard at his trade,
But had a household to support
That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend,
I look thread bear and rough;
I've tried to get myself a suit,
But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you?
I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's sound and cheap:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved,
And went to Reizenstein & Brothers',
And there he got a handsome suit,
For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well,
And their effect is such,
That when they take their daily meal,
They don't eat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night,
With all their wants supplied,
That he has money left to spend,
And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile,
He gladly tells to all,
If you'd save money, go and buy
Your clothes at—

REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL.

No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

$1000 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect.
