Ho ye who start a noble scheme,
For general good designed—
Ye workers in a cause that tends
To benefit your kind—
Mark out the path you fain would tread,
The The game you mean to play, And if it be an honest one, Keep steadfast on your way.

Although you may not gain at once
The points you must desire,
Be patient—time can wonders work—
Fled on, and do not tire.
Obstructions, too, may crowd your path,
In threatening, stern array;
Yet fluch not! fear not; they may prove
Mere shadows in your way. Then while there's work for you to do,

Sized not despairing by—
Let "Forward" be the move you make,
Let "Onward" be your cry;
And when success has crown'd your plans,
"Will all your pains repay,
To see the good your labor's done,—
Then drop not on your way!

Go In Rans .- The riot which occurred in New York on the 12th, for nishes rare food for Radical appetites, which always seem to relish blood, as long as their own bides are not injured. Abuse of Tammany and the city government is just now the stock in trade of the Radical journals. A venerable d sagacious Bishop of the English Church once told a young clergyman when he had exhausted all other sub jects, to denounce the Pope. Radical journals are acting upon that advice at the present time. They are denouncing Tammany and Mayor Hall. But the New York Evangelist, a Presbyterian organ, the editor of which is a pronounced Radical does not agree to the general slander started and kept up for political effect. He tells us that where he had heard there was nothing but license, robbery and fraud, he found energy, system, order and integrity; that Mayor Hall dis-plays a noble impartiality in dispen-ing his enormous patronage; and that the conduct of Mr. Sweeny is the most generous he has ever known in any public office. The Evangelist, with its eyes thus opened, denounces the "slambang style of writing and speaking," that at once outrages truth and decency, and does full jus-tice to the rulers of New York. Such testimony will outweigh pages of stuff written and printed by hirelings of

WHERE THEY RESIDE.-Gen. Sherman, at the recent commencement exercises of Georgetown College, made a speech to the students, representing most of the States of the Union. He said to them: "You must have at heart the interests of the whole country, which must never be divided. The attempt in our generation failed, and it will always fail, and I would as soon expect to see an attempt to dissolve this Union in the future come from the North as from the South. This is confirmatory of his New Or-leans speech, in which the General Southern disloyalty to the government,—The Age.

STONE AND EARTHEN - WARE ment .- The Age

the Radical party.

Gen. Sherman may well expect to see the next attempt to dissolve the Union, come from the North, instead of the South. Ninety-eight out of every hundred of the Disunionists, to the breaking out of the late war, were from and in the North. We adduce, as indisputable evidence We addace, as indisputable evidence of this fact, the public speeches of such abolitionists as J. R. Giddings, Garret Smith, and Wendell Phillips, uttered forty years ago, to say noth. uttered forty years ago, to say nothing of the vote of Senators Hale, Seward and Ton Cornein, over thirty STONE - WARE POTTERY, years ago, in the United States Sen ate, for the reception of a petition praying for the "dissolution of the

A FRIGHTFUL SNAKE STORY .- The sesson for snake "yarns" is in its zenith and we have one to contribute. But, unlike many others, the truth of ours if vouched for by a reliable gentleman. One day last week at the hoose of a family named Ulrich, near Middlespring, our snake made its appearance. It seems that Mrs. Ulrich left her little child playing on the floor whilst she went up stairs to attend to some domestic duties. After remaining there for some time she heard loud cries of laughter coming from the child and she retraced her steps to see the cause. Imagine her horror when looking in the room she saw a huge black snake wrapped around the lit tle child's body and entwined around its neck, all the while the little one laughing until the tears run down its Struck with fear her piercing screams alarmed her husband working near by, who came in and evidently saved the child's life by drawing it from the folds of the snake whilst Mrs. U. loosed it with a hoe, and they were thus enabled to dispatch it. The little child was delighted with its strange companion and seemed regretful that it should be so murder ously dealt with .- Valley Sentinal.

A Suggestion .- The New York Herald of Saturday says: The suicide of Mr. Dow, a wealthy citizen of New Hampshire, by taking landanum, in Madison square, early yesterday morning, is suggestive of a much needed improvement in the modes of self-destruction. Blowing one's brains out, jumping into the rivers, or hang-ing one's self from the bedpost are all horrible methods that make death even more repulsive than in his grimmest moods; but to pass out of existence in a sleep through the bewilder-ing and delightful dreams induced by odium, in the cool breezes of the early morning and in a garden spot like Madison square, is a refinement in suicide that ought to put a French-

SALARIES.—The President Judges throughout the State now receive a salary of $5,000, as provided by the law which went into effect on June Mossop's, where they intend to keep a supply of which went into effect on June 1st. The associate judges receive in lieu of the salary formerly allowed by law tive dollars for every day they law tive dollars for every day they may be employed in the discharge of their official duties. The salary of no associate judge shall be less than three hundred dollars. The judges of the Supreme Courts have had their salaries also increased to $7,000 a year.

When Sheridan kept a school he had in one of his classes a boy who always road patridges for patriarehs. "Stop," exclaimed the wag of a teacher, "you shall not make game of the patriarchs."

To make a little boy's trowser "last"—when you make a suit of clothes for him, finish the coat first, and by so doing you make the trow-sers last. It is the only way the thing

How to Save Money.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, flut can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go To get a suit that's sound and cheap: To REIZENSTEIN & Co. He took what little he had saved, And went to Reirenstein & Brothers', And there he get a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't cat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all. If you'd save money, go and buy Your clothes at— REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL. Where the cheapest, finest and best Clothing and good Furnishing Goods can be had to suit every taste and in every style april, 70
