LETTER FROM JORDAN TOWNSHIP

Anonyllis, August 18, 1871.

Mr. Editor — I am no writer as such, but I will try sud dot you down a few items at this time. Jordan, you know, is one of the oldest and best improved townships in the county, and in politics is soundly Democratic. Although much of our lumber has not got to market this year, for want of floods, considerable improving in the way of building is going on. Our Haptist Friends have a creeted a large church building, near this place, which is a credit to them and the neighborhood. We have harvested the best crep of Fall grain ever raised in the township, but the hall storms and dry weather has played hob with the hay crop and corn and buckwheat.

I wish you would stir up our supervisors a little. Our reads need repairing very badly, still there is very little being done to make them any better. Good reads are as assocital in a neighborhood as good bread is in a family. We have paid road very little being done to make them any better. Good roads are as essential in a neighborhood as good bread is in a family. We have paid road tax enough the past twenty years to make every road a strepike, still the roads are in a bad condition. However, we can still brag over our neighbors, Chert and Ferguson. I guess they have no supervisors over there.

I must not forget politics. We are going to give the Rada fits this Fall. I feel it in my bones, as "Pap" Test used to say. Before the primary election we had a good deal of help to stir our fellows up. Candidates were here among us every day, More than two mosths have passed, but we have not seen or heard from a candidate, since. The candidates kept us posted in political matters the and seen or neard from a canonical store. In candidates kept as posted in political matters the fore part of the summer, but now, from the look of things, we will have to post ourselves, as they don't seen to take any more interest in us.

I must close for this time, but you may hear from me again.

Yours, JORDAN.
