LETTER FROM KNOX TOWNSHIP.

New Milipour, August 24th, 1871.

Mr. Envior — I take pleasure in smaling to you the report of a please which took place in a lean that grow near this place, on the 22th alt. This please has been quite different from any it has ever been my privilege to attend. But a very short time ago it was announced that Mis Butler of Philadelphia, who is now stopping at this place, would give a public plane, and that all well disposed persons should consider themselves invited to attend. Accordingly, on the morning incidented, quite a respectabile consource of people had assembled to participate. Among the number were persons of almost all professions, such as ministers of the googel, legale, trashers, nerchants, farmers and mechanics. The morning was a pleasant one, and all present seemed full of life. The first in order was a mediang.—I. F. Williams, Eng., and Miss Ligite Glenn, by Rev. Ethoner, Music by R. R. I dare not attempt to describe one tenth part of the goodies—it would consume too much time and space. Softwer it to say that no better was ever gotten up anywhere in the county, 2nd you may rest assured that ample justice was done? I by all. After dinner addresses were delivered by fla.7s, Vanckyos, Thompson, Skinser, and others. The remaining part of the day was consumed by all kinds of gangaand plays. Many remained in the grove until the tree free, and crickets began their music, after which all retired to their homes, but not without thanking Miss Butler, our hortess, for her kindness to all. May she live to return to us again next year, is the desire of all. I believe there were no printer or exitors present, but I knew it would have done your soul good had you been there.
