LETTER FROM BELL TOWNSHIP.

OSTERD, Sept. 7, 1871.

Mr. Editor: —I know you should have the local news of this neighborhood, but I have so little time and talcut to write that I always think some-body else should send the news, when we have any. Yesterday our neighborhood was disturbed by the ery of "fire! fire!" The barn of Mr. Joob Spider, Sr., was burned to the ground believes and 4 o'clock. About IT tons of hay, 130 bushels of oats, some wheat, straw, etc., were consumed. The loss will reach $1,000. It was no doubt the work of an incendiary. Strong suspicions rest upon certain parties, but as the matter is likely to undergo a judicial investigation, I will say no more about it. Your friend, BEILL.
P. S.—Oh Thousday, Samuel Snider, a son, and Ja nea Reggunder were lodged in Prison, charged with burning the said barn.

Another correspondent, writing from Cush P.

I cannot pay you my subscription until we get a flood up this way. You know our lumber is all bere yet, and no money. I could send you the names of several new subscribers, but they are like myself, no maney. The new bridge seroes the river helow the mouth of Chest creek is up and completed. It is a splendid structure, and mighty handy in time of floods, and not much out of the way in a dry season. Mr. Mehaffey deserves credit, because he has done a good job. Send us a flood and I will send you my subscription for three years in advance.

KARTHAUN, Sept. 9th, 1871.

Editor Republican:—I notice that you have some correspondents in the upper end of the county, and thought I would give the lower end a lift. We have not get much to write about down here. Severyhody seems to be minding his own business. Politically we seem to be favored this fall, by having two candidates—Mr. Courfiel, the Democratic nomines for Commissioner, and Esseries Medicanes.

ing two candidates—Mr. Coutriet, the Democratic nomines for Commissioner, and Esquire Mediarvey, the Republican candidate for Auditor. You are aware, to doubt, that both reside in this town ship. Karthaus will show an increase in the Democratic vote this fall, because Mr. Coutriet is a good man, and will see that all our party friends able to get to the election will be there.

Yours, FARMER.

Another correspondent says: The work on our new bridge over the month of Musquito creek is being pushed vigoronaly, and in a very short time the timbers will be asounted on the abutments, which, for workmanship and stone, cannot be surpassed anywhere. The work attracts the attention of all who pass it, and when completed will be a masterpiese of workmanship throughout and a credit to all concerned, besides its great advantage to the public. This bridge is not for the people of Karthaus alone, but the hundreds of raftmen from Burnside, Bell, Chest, Beccaria and Woodward, will pass safely over it every food. Money expended in the crection of bridges down here is well invested, because all up river men use them, yet I am sorry to say that but very little has been invested from this way, while the apper-enders are constantly after bridges, although the stream is not as large as here. But I will complain no more at this time, and sign myself.
