FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL. CAPT. JAMES H. COOPER, OF LANCASTER COUNTY.

Democratic District Ticket. SENATOR. WILLIAM A. WALLACE, of Clearfield.

Democratic County Ticket. ASSEMBLY. JOHN LAWSHIC, of Clearfield. ASSOCIATE JUDGES. WILLIAM C. POLEY, of Clearfield. JOHN J. BRAD, of Lawrence.

PROTORYNARY. AARON C. TATE, of Clearfield. REGISTER & RECORDER. ASBURY W. LEE, of Clearfield.

THESURER. SAMUEL P. WILSON, of Bradford. COMMISSIONER. P. F. COUTRIET, of Karthaus.

AUDITOR. REUBEN McPHERSON, of Clearfield. COUNTY SURVEYOR. S. P. McCLOSKEY, of Curwensville.

Saturday next, September 30th, is the last day to get registered. Democrats, attend to this matter.

DECLINES.—Hon. Isaac G. Gordon, of Brookville, declines the Radical nomination for President Judge in that judicial district. One sensible Radical at least in Jefferson county.

THE ORATOR.—Hon. Daniel W. Voorhes, of Indiana, is to be the orator at the Maryland State Fair, to be held at Baltimore on the 3d to the 6th of October. To hear him would be a rare treat.

THE STATE OF AFFAIRS.—Government affairs at Washington, our national Capital, are becoming decidedly loose. The majority of the heads of Departments, are either absent from their duties or public defaulters, at least "loyal to the core."

RADICAL HONESTY.—It is now settled that the State robber, Evans, is not to be arrested until after the election. His arrest would bring to light one of the largest frauds ever perpetrated on the tax-payers of Pennsylvania, which would prove very damaging to Radicalism generally, and to Gov. Geary, Auditor General Hartranft and State Treasurer Mackey in particular.

IN TROUBLE.—Forney's Press and other Radical organs are wonderfully exercised over "Tammany's trials." Those extra fellows had better be looking after Evans, Hodges and Norton's trials. That would be a family engagement, and a matter under their own control. Tammany is on trial but Radicalism is entitled to no credit. Democrats are pinning the robbers and will turn them out.

TOME.—Jacob TOME, Esq.,—This gentleman, who resides at Port Deposit, known to many of our lumbermen, was last week nominated by the negroes and sealwags of Maryland for Governor. He will be overwhelming by defeated, of course, as he cannot even "grin" the ignorant negroes, because he sold more of them into slavery, while "it paid," than any man in Cecil county.

MONS SHERES LOOSE.—The account of Geo. F. Delleker, cashier of the Philadelphia Mint, won't square. The Treasurer, George Eyster, has been examining the account for some time, and to show that there is something "rotten in Denmark," Delleker was last week removed. Of course nothing will be developed for the benefit of the public until after the election, because our "loyal" friends have already too many dirty jobs of this kind on hand for the good of their party.

Saturday next, September 30th, is the last day to get registered. Democrats, attend to this matter.

THE POOR DEVIL.—The Radicals of Berks county last week elected Thos. D. Flater delegate to the next National Convention, with instructions for Grant. Since his election it has been discovered that he was a Colonel in the Confederate army during the whole war, besides having resigned from the Navy in 1861. After the war he carried baggage in Alabama for several years, became "loyal," was elected to the Legislature, grew rich, removed to Old Berks in 1867, and is now sent to the National Convention. A movement is now on foot, by "loyal" men, too, to re-assemble the county Convention and displace him, because of his "disloyal practices" during the war.

How remarkable that this poor devil should be made a target for "loyal men" to shoot at, while the Confederate Colonel, Ackerman, holds a seat in Grant's Cabinet, and General Longstreet holds one of the best places in the gift of the President. Why not treat all "rebels" alike? D've see it?

A Stupid Trick.

Governor Geary and the rest of our State officers at Harrisburg have added to their guilt in the Evans case by attempting to shift the responsibility for that scoundrel's escape upon the shoulders of the Governor of New York. The trick is as stupid and contemptible as it is wicked. Evans was in Philadelphia and in Harrisburg, where the hand of the law might have been laid upon him any day or any hour, if the Governor had desired his arrest. No steps were taken to secure him until the force of public sentiment, loudly and even angrily expressed, compelled our State officers to take action. Then they gave notice that they intended to arrest Evans. Then Evans went to the city of New York and showed himself publicly, so that it might become known where he was, and so that the Governor of Pennsylvania might send a requisition for him to the Governor of New York. Then he went to Albany and showed himself publicly there, so that it might become known all over the country that he had been right under the nose of the Governor of New York. But before Governor Geary's tardy requisition could be presented to Governor Hoffman and endorsed by him, Evans slipped from Albany and took good care not to let any one catch him in New York.

And now Governor Geary organizes a party to demand that our State officers should not act upon the requisition with sufficient promptness to secure the arrest of Evans! But do not all the facts go to prove that Governor Geary arranged this whole affair with Evans, so that the latter might escape, while the Governor should appear to have made an effort to have him arrested? It is clear that our State officers did not want Evans arrested. They were afraid he would make a clear breast of it and give the names of all with whom he had divided his plunder.—Valley Spirit.

A Lie.—That Radicalism is mainly kept up by falsehood and robbery is patent to all intelligent beings. The following, coupled with Evans, embraces just what we allege:

"Evans, the Pennsylvania defaulter, has, in all probability, made his escape through the tardiness of the officers of the Pennsylvania State Prison, in New York. Republicans seek to punish scoundrels, while the Democracy protect them."

This first-class lie we find in nearly every Radical newspaper we open, and it is so hugely untruthful, and the authors know it, too, that we have almost come to the conclusion that Missionaries and Sunday Schools make but little impression on loyal editors. The reverse is the fact. Geary, Hartranft and Treasurer Mackey as much as told Evans to run off, and then waited two weeks to allow him to pack his traps before they issued their warrant.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.—An act was passed by the Legislature last winter for the calling of a Convention to revise our State Constitution, provided a majority of the votes polled on that question on the 2d Tuesday of October so express it. Tickets will be printed and circulated, headed "Convention," and inside, "For Convention" or "Against Convention," as the voter deems best. As the tickets will be printed "for" and "against" a Convention, the voter must be careful and take his pen or pencil and erase from his ticket one or the other, because if he puts his ticket into the box without erasing either, the ticket will be thrown out by the election officers, as the vote cannot be counted both "For a Convention" and "Against a Convention." The voter must either favor or oppose a Convention, or strike both off his ticket, if he does not desire to vote on the question.

GO.—Democrats of Clearfield county, do not fail to go to the election on the 10th of October. A general turnout of our party friends will give us the State by 15,000 majority. Our enemies have local fights every where, while peace reigns within our border. The huge tramps brought to light lately has staggered all honest Republicans and thousands will remain at home on election day, so that an easy victory awaits the Democracy if they only attend the election and cast their ballots for our nominees, who are by far the most competent and will therefore make the best officers.

STUBBLED.—Philosopher Greeley occasionally gets off a good thing. In referring to the proceedings of the Maryland State Convention, he says: "Baltimore is so near Washington that we are not surprised to see the National Capital influences guiding the action of the Maryland Republican Convention yesterday. The resolutions, which were kept back until the confidence of men of all parties." The Hon. Alexander Randall, nominated for Attorney General, we take it, is the gentleman who ably represented his State in the Twenty-seventh Congress. The Convention did well in refusing to consider a resolution endorsing the San Domingo purchase as irrelevant; it would have done better if it had left the nomination of the next Republican candidate for President to the hands of those who have some hand in electing the present Chief Magistrate, and can be counted on as sure to help elect the next one.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION of Mississippi did not nominate Grant for re-election, nor did it even commend his administration. It is now proposed to declare martial law in that State. Evidently something must be done.

Ann Dickinson starts on her annual tramp with a new outfit, "Compulsory Education." Her next campaign will be "Compulsory Matrimony."

The Democratic Delegate to Congress from New Mexico was elected by two hundred and fifty thousand majority, and both Houses of the Legislature are largely Democratic.

Greeley and Grant.

Horace Greeley, who is now fairly on the track as a candidate for the Presidency, does not hesitate to express his opinion in conversation, his utter contempt for Grant. In a recent talk, on the cars, with Hon. John B. Grinnell, of Iowa, reported in the New York Sun, Horace used this remarkable plain language:

"If we nominate Grant, we shall certainly be defeated. The public will stand no more horse-jockey and present-taking. I tell you, gentlemen, we must take a new departure, and I can assure you that we of the east are determined that it shall be done. I have been rather quiet about it so far, but I want everybody now to understand what I think. When we take hold of Grant, it will not be with silk gloves on our hands. It has got to be done. We must throw Grant overboard, or we shall be defeated."

"But," said Mr. Grinnell, as though asking for information, "what would you have us do, Mr. Greeley? Suppose we throw Grant over, what can we do? You know our people don't want to jump out of the frying pan into the fire. Now, if you will give us the slightest hope that you intend to put your own name forward, we would willingly throw out Grant and take you in his place."

"All I want is to have a good man nominated, who, if elected, will consent to give up the office at the end of his term. Besides, I want to nominate a man who if elected will elevate the office where it was in former days, and who will not use his office for his own private gain, or use the military or his office holders to advance his own aspirations for a second term, and in the meantime neglect the interests of those whose ruler he is. Besides, I want a man who is above mere pleasure hunting; a man who will not dawdle away one-fourth of his term amid the follies and frivolities of a watering place, one who, when called upon for an expression of views on political and other subjects of national interest, can give them in clear, comprehensive language. That's the kind of a man the people want, and bringing his fat down on the table, 'that's the kind of a man we haven't now. I want you, gentlemen, to tell your people here in the west that we are going to fight against Grant to the extent of our ability.—We will not remain passive or indifferent, but, to use his own words, 'I am going to fight it out on this line.' Greeley's description of the kind of man wanted in Grant's place reminds us of Mirabeau's suggestion to Talleyrand, in 1790, that in view of the troubles that then beset France, it would soon be necessary to proclaim a dictator. 'But who shall it be?' said Talleyrand. Mirabeau then went on to describe the proper person. He must be popular with the masses,—he must be respected,—he must be a brilliant orator. He must be a man of high character, and his life must be in the prime of life. Another asset. After Mirabeau had given a pretty complete list of qualifications to be exacted of the coming man, and had, at the same time, very accurately described himself, he paused. 'Is that all?' said Talleyrand. 'Yes, I believe that is all.' 'No, you have forgotten one thing.' And what was that? 'The man must be a man of the small-pox.' Greeley's outline of his pet candidate would be complete, if he had added that he must wear a white hat, edit a newspaper, have written a book about farming, and have gone bail for Jeff. Davis.—Harrisburg Patriot.

THE STATE APPOINTMENT.—The following table shows the political complexion of the various representative districts in Pennsylvania, and will be found valuable for reference. They were classified in this order by the Conference Committee on the Apportionment bill, but local influences and discussions may turn some of them:

Table with 2 columns: District Name and Political Party. Includes Philadelphia, Allegheny, Luzerne, etc.

THE GOLDSMITH MAID IMPACHED.—Relative to the question among horsemen, whether Dexter's time has been beaten, the Washington Star says the following: "The turfmen do not seem prepared to concede that the time performance (2:17) reported as trotted by the mare Goldsmith Maid at Milwaukee was truly and honestly won. All others who were witnesses to the race, it seems, is so low for a quarter of a mile on the back stretch, that the horses are not in sight of the judges; Goldsmith Maid is notorious for breaking; the mare Lucy, the only competitor Goldsmith Maid had in the contest, has the same owner (H. N. Smith) as Goldsmith Maid, and it is intimated that the driver of Goldsmith Maid put more than 2 lb. on the mare, and that she had been deceived by Hickok, the driver of Lucy, of course there was no devaluation of claim or foul. If this suspicion be well founded, Dexter is really King of the trotters. There is so much rascality about horse matters, buying, selling, trotting and running, that turfmen, if suspecting trickery of the kind suggested, know how it is themselves."

HAWLEY OR BUTLER.—A circular letter is published by Gen. Hawley in reply to Gen. Butler's Springfield speech. He thinks Butler the most reckless, unscrupulous and dangerous demagogue this country has ever seen since Aaron Burr, and that he may make a good deal of trouble. But then he will kill himself. He might succeed in Paris, as Robespierre and Rochefort succeeded, but he is a monstrosity in New England.

The following advertisement appeared in the Morristown Jerseyman, which shows that the writer has been studying the Butler campaign: "To whom it may concern.—Whereas, Paromelia Bush, a resident of Chester, did promise to marry me on the 9th inst. but instead of doing so, did flunk and has run off. I brand her as a liar and a person of bad character generally.—Edward Pratt."

Major Hodges, the defaulting paymaster, had two sureties, each of whom gave the bond for $20,000, and this is all the Government is likely to save from that half-million steal. It is almost as bad as Evans, whose bond amounts to but ten thousand dollars. But then they are loyal, you know, and loyalty should protect what loyalty steals.

Radicals Try to Wield the Influence of the Temperance Movement in the Interest of Their Party.

E. H. Rauch, Esq., one of the editors of the Keystone Good Templar, says his respects to the Rev. F. Coombe after the following fashion:

Rev. F. Coombe: I have patiently submitted for some time, to some very bitter assaults upon me by members of a corrupt ring of party hirelings who are now wielding a most dangerous and demoralizing influence within the lines of the order of Good Templars.

If I am not mistaken, you, among others, have been at work recently assailing and slandering me personally—by letters to individuals and otherwise—charging me with corruption, insincerity, and so forth.

I accept the implied challenge to ventilate the question of personal sincerity and honor between us, so far, at least, as the good of the temperance cause may demand. And now, without needless words, I propose to proceed to business at once.

Firstly: A reasonable amount of space in The Keystone Good Templar is at your service to prove your assertions as to my corruption, insincerity and treachery. If you know a single fact (and you have known me personally for over 25 years) calculated to excite even the slightest suspicion that I ever received a bribe, sold my influence, or did any act to warrant you in assailing me as you did, then state it openly and above board, like a man;
