No Service.—We are requested to state that there will be no service in the Baptist Church in this place on next Sabbath, Rev. Mr. Skinner having been called away by sickness.

A New Millport correspondent informs us that Mr. Michael Wise, of Bloomington, died suddenly of heart disease, while at work in his barn, on Monday, the 10th ult. Deceased was aged 61 years and ten days.

Barr Spangler and E. A. Wheeler, the Temperance candidates for Auditor and Surveyor General, received three votes each in Burnside township and one each in Clearfield. Four conscientious temperance men in Clearfield county, at least.

Some unprincipled villain, who ought to have been in the Penitentiary long ago, went into the shop of Mr. H. Ross, at noon on Monday, while he was at dinner, and completely ruined and destroyed an orchestra cornet born, worth at least fifty dollars. We hope the rascal will be discovered and severely punished.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Clearfield, for the week ending October 16th, 1871:

Johns, Henry. Thompson, William.
Stockton, C. J. Thomas, Herman.
P. A. GAULIN, P. M.

Barn Burned.—A correspondent informs us that the barn of Joseph McCully, of Bostan township, was burned on the night of the 7th, with all its contents, together with a threshing machine, wagons, sleds, plows, etc. Mr. McCully's loss is estimated at $1,500, and the fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, as no one had been about the barn that day with either fire or light.

Unseated Lands.—It will be observed by an advertisement elsewhere in this issue that the County Commissioners give notice to unseated land owners and agents that they will give them an audience, in relation to assessments, at their office, between the 30th of October and 11th of November next. Those who neglect this notice cannot complain if they are imposed on, because this is a liberal extension of time on the part of the Commissioners.

Conference Meeting.—The Northern Conference of the Evangelical Lutheran Allegheny Synod of Pennsylvania, will meet in the Lutheran church, in Clearfield, on Tuesday evening, October 24th, 1871, at 7 o'clock. The Rev's Crist, Baker, Streamer, Thompson, Croft, Rev. Boyer, Unruh and Kistler have signified their intent to be present, unless Providentially prevented. Services morning and evening. Communion on Sabbath, the 29th. The members of the church are earnestly requested, and the public generally cordially invited, to attend.

Borough Election.—The following is the result in the borough of Clearfield, at the election on the 10th, for Assessor and School Directors:

Assessor—James L. Leavy, Democrat,.....168
Geo. W. Rheem, Radical,.....115
School Directors—Isaac Johnson, Dem.....252
Francis Short, Dem.....236
W. M. McCullough, Dem....270
T. J. Boyer, Dem.....262
H. W. Snyder, Rad.....225
Robert Mitchell, Rad.....225
T. H. Murray, Rad.....225

The School Directors were elected under the cumulative system. The Republicans having voted for three members of the board, it will be necessary for some one to say which two of the three are elected.

A Safe Safe.—We understand that our neighboring village of Clarion was in rather a bad fix a few days ago. The National Bank of that place had a large new safe manufactured in Cincinnati put in their bank, in which all the funds were placed and locked up. Upon attempting to open the safe the next morning it was discovered that something was wrong, and the "old thing" would not open, and as a consequence all business would have to be suspended, until a man from the manufactory arrived, unless a supply of money was obtained from some other source.

Out of this dilemma they were helped by our Brookville Banks, who furnished them with sufficient funds to do business until they could get their safe open.—Brookville Jeffersonian.

Bad Roads.—The last Grand Jury, like its predecessors, recommended some wise and some foolish things to be done. Among the former was the condemnation and return of some of the roads, and particularly the Clearfield and Karthaus road, "from the Goshen line to the residence of the late Henry Irwin, in Lawrence township," and that portion of the Snow Shoe and Parkersville turnpike from Moose Run in Lawrence township to the Union township line. And the road leading from the Susquehanna Church in Bell township to the Burnside township line.

This is "a new departure" much needed, and the Grand Juries will receive the thanks of the public if they continue to give the public roads some attention. The supervisors in Lawrence and Bell will do well to heed the recommendations of the Grand Jury. The repairing of the old prison and the removal of the water closets in the Court House yard, we consider among the foolish things suggested by the Jury. Excepting these, the last Grand Jury was "a success." Every juror drawn appeared, and they hailed from every section of the county, and were as intelligent a body as ever before appeared in our court.

We hope future Grand Juries will make bad roads a specialty. Bad roads and assault and battery and other low neighborhood brawls are just the cases Grand Juries should take in hand.

Township Elections.—Some confusion and misunderstanding has resulted from the recent changes made in the time for holding the township elections. Prior to 1869, these elections were held on the third Friday in March. In that year an act was passed providing that they should be held on the second Tuesday in October. This was found to work unsatisfactorily, and at the last session of the Legislature the act was repealed, and it was provided that in the year 1872 and annually thereafter, all elections for city, ward, borough, township and election officers, in the different cities and counties of this Commonwealth, shall be on the days and at the times they were held as provided by law in the different cities, wards, boroughs and townships in said counties, prior to the passage of said act of 1869.

It is also provided that the terms of the different officers to be elected in 1872, shall begin when the terms of the present officers shall expire, and so with such officers annually thereafter, as provided by law prior to the passage of the act of April 17, 1869. This act is not applicable to elections specially provided for since the passage of the act of 1869. In Clearfield the borough and township officers (except Assessor) will be elected on Friday, December 29th. [See pamphlet laws of 1871, page 1067.]

A Gala Day among Odd Fellows.

—Our town on last Friday presented a very lively and stirring appearance, produced by the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the organization of Clearfield Lodge, No. 198, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The morning opened with that peculiar kind of drowsy fog, which, in these mountains, surely betokens a pleasant day, and the members of the order were early astir, completing their arrangements in the full anticipation of a joyous day.

Soon the surrounding country and neighboring villages began to pour into the town their streams of wondering populace, and it was hard to tell who were most interested, the initiated or uninitiated, for all seemed bent on having a good time generally. But when the cars arrived at the depot and began to pour out their stream of live Odd Fellows, hailing from Bellefonte, Osceola and Philipsburg, with their music and banners, accompanied by the Most Worthy Grand Master and Secretary of the order in Pennsylvania, the excitement seemed almost beyond restraint.

The different Lodges formed procession, under their respective officers, and marched to the stirring music of the Philipsburg and Osceola Bands to the Lodge room of 198, where there was a general greeting and generous congratulation among the brothers of the order.

The programme of the day was,

First, A procession of the order in full regalia.

Second. A banquet at the Mansion and Leonard Houses.

Third. A lecture on Odd-Fellowship, in the Court House, at 7½ o'clock in the evening, by Past Grand Sire, James B. Nicholson.

Between one and two o'clock the brothers of the order gathered in the Lodge room of 198 and were by the Marshals formed in order of procession, preceded by the Osceola Band. Next came the O. G. of 198. Following him came the newly initiated brothers of all the Lodges represented, followed by the brothers of the various degrees in their regular order, from first to fifth. Then came the Philipsburg Band, followed by the officers of the various Lodges represented, in seniority of rank. Following them came the Past Grands of all the Lodges present, designated by their scarlet collars and white trimmings. In the rear came the Encampment members, with Grand Chaplain, and closing the procession marched the District Deputy Grand Masters of Centre and Clearfield counties and the Grand Officers of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

The procession formed from the Lodge room, on Market street, facing westward, and marched through most of the principal streets of our village. The procession halted on the south side of the Court House square, and reached in a closely packed column from Second to Third street, where it formed open ranks and countermarched by the rear. Those who were to dine at the Mansion House proceeded thither, headed by the Osceola Band and the Grand Sire; while those who were appointed to feast at the Leonard House filed to the right, preceded by the Philipsburg Band and accompanied by Grand Master Alfred Slack, of Allegheny, and marched to that hotel. A sumptuous repast was prepared by the generous hosts of these hotels, to which ample justice was done by the over two hundred and sixty convivial souls and joyous hearts. Happiness beamed from every eye, and the smile of gladness glowed on every face, while friendly greetings and fraternal interchanges of sentiment told in unmistakable language that "all went merry as a marriage bell."

Long before the hour for the public lecture, the moving columns of the curious and uninitiated were seen filing in the direction of the Court House, and before its commencement the house was packed to overflowing by as intelligent an audience as one would wish to look upon, and it is said as many went away disappointed as were enabled to gain a hearing place in that large room. The Grand Master presiding, the exercises were opened with a sweet strain of music, performed by Miss Rose Ryndor, of Lock Haven, which was followed by the singing of the opening ode of the order, and prayer by the Grand Chaplain. Past Grand Cuttle then read some brief statistics of the origin and growth of the order in Clearfield during the last twenty-five years; showing that from the smallest requisite number of charter members (viz five) in 1846, they had grown to thousands, springing from this Lodge, and spreading over several adjoining counties and to almost every village in our own county, and showing that in all this time the open hand of charity had ever been held forth to the needy and distressed, casting its relief abroad by thousands and extending the kindly sympathy of loving hearts wherever such seemed called for, both in and out of the order. Then was read by the G. M. an appeal for aid issued by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania to its subordinate Lodges, in behalf of the Chicago sufferers.

The G. M. then introduced the principal speaker of ther evening, Past Grand Sire J. B. Nicholson, who for two hours held that vast audience spell bound with the eloquent flow of truths, which seemed to be fully appreciated by every hearer, and which could not have been uttered by one less eloquent or made so impressive by one whose soul was less thoroughly imbued with the great principles of the order. Music again by Miss Ryndor, the benediction, and the audience dispersed, all seeming delighted with the day's doings, and more especially with that of the evening, as expressions of having been the recipients of a most happy and instructive literary treat were uttered on almost every hand. Even the most critical could find naught to criticise, so timely and well put was every proposition and sentiment.

Thus closed the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Clearfield Lodge, No. 198, I. O. of O. F. Long may it flourish to succor the needy, relieve the distressed, elevate mankind and fulfill the mission of love set forth in the Royal law.

LETTER FROM NEW WASHINGTON.

New Washington, October 12th, 1871.

Mr. Editor: You will see by returns of this borough that the rad's have a gain of three over the vote of last fall, while we held our own. This was caused by several Rad's moving into the district. Every Democrat in the borough, with one exception, attended the election. Equalization of taxation was the cause of his absence. He discontinued his county paper a short time since, saying that he could save two dollars thereby. I heard a gentleman remark, on the day of the election, that this economical gentleman by withdrawing from the church could save two dollars more.

To-night the Irving Literary Society, of New Washington Academy, are to have a grand exhibition in the M. E. Church, and if there is anything in training, (and Doble says there is), it will far surpass anything that Prof. H. of your Academy ever thought of. I need not dwell on this subject however, for little McGossip will doubtless give you a full account of the proceedings, as he was assiduously at work all day on Sunday last preparing his report for the Republican. It will have to pass through the hands of his shadow, "Social Dispatcher," before reaching you. By the way, "Social Dispatcher" was firing paper bullets—or thought he was—at me through the Republican of last week. But he was, as you know, wide of the mark. I don't give Democrats $20 coats to vote the radical ticket. Neither do I go around like Twain's Wandering Jew, placarding old, dilapidated walls with a mystic scrawl,

"S.—T.—1866—X."

Try again, "Social Dispatcher," and when next you and McGossip burn the "midnight taper" replying to "Crissis," use your own writing materials and save your friends the expense of your productions. McGossip was a little afraid to come back to you over his own signature after the slight hints I gave him, so he and others held a pow wow, and the result was a monstrosity—a two-headed calf—"Gossip" and "Social Dispatcher." Would it not be well for "Economy" and McGossip to present "Social Dispatcher" (for his able and disinterested defence of them) with a leather medal, having a battery of light guns surrounded by a wreath of buckwheat vines engraved on one side, and on the reverse a rampant Jackass. This little memento would be of use to him when time shall have changed them all. By referring to it the battery would bring "Economy" to his memory, the buckwheat wreath McGossip, and the rampant Jackass his own noble ancestors.

Yours, &c., Crissis.

Specials.

The great question of the day is whether Dexter or the Goldsmith Maid is the fastest trotter, but there is no question about Shaw's being the best Horse Powder ever sold. It can be had at all stores in the county.

J. Miles Kratzer has just returned from the eastern cities, where he has purchased, and is now opening, a large stock of Fall and Winter goods, embracing everything suitable for the season and all the latest novelties. Give him a call. He is fully prepared to supply the wants of all.

Our buyer, Wm. Reed, is now in the east. By the last of the week we will be in receipt of a choice line of Winter Dress Goods, Shawls, Coats and Coatings, Furs, Gents' Furnishing Goods, &c.
Reed Brothers.

The "New" Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine.—Nearly six hundred thousand of these machines are now in use. Such success has only been gained by merit alone, and not by decrying the merits of other machines. These machines can be bought of any of the traveling agents of Wm. Sumner & Co., at the same price as in any of their offices, and the purchaser can feel assured of receiving proper instruction in its use at his own house. Buy the best always.

It is a comfortable reflection that in this age of humbugs you can always rely on the West Branch Bitters for a pure and good tonic. A. I. Shaw's is the place to get it. He also sells the best and cheapest drugs in the county.

A Trip.—During the last two weeks I was permitted to see New York, with its thronged Broadway and its great Park, containing living animals and birds of all kinds, and of scenery the grandest. From there to Philadelphia, with Fairmount water works and places of interest. From there I came to Curwensville, where I found the enterprising firm of Thompson & Co. opening a very large stock of goods, just received from New York and Philadelphia, and by their prices was convinced that there is the place to buy, at figures to suit the times, goods to suit the most choicy, and that their motto, "As cheap as the cheapest," is entirely true. Go and purchase of them, and complain no more of high prices. Their terms are easy. oct11-2t A Buyer.

County Institute.—The Clearfield County Teachers' Institute will commence on Monday next, October 23d. The exercises will be made as practical as possible, by means of class drills, blackboard illustrations, and a general discussion at the close of the different exercises. The teachers of the county are expected to do the greater part of the work during the day sessions. Teachers of both public and private schools, and all persons intending to become teachers, therefore, are invited to become members and participate and enjoy the advantages of the institute. Let each teacher endeavor to have all the other teachers in his district present. Let there be a full turnout. The evening sessions will be held in the Court House, and will be devoted to free lectures, addresses, readings, music, &c. Clergymen and all others interested in the farther enhancement of education, from all parts of the county, are cordially requested to attend. The Clearfield Orchestra will favor the institute, on Monday evening, with several pieces of fine music. Thursday, October 26th, will be Directors' day. It is hoped that a large proportion of the 198 directors, and at least the officers of every board in the county, will be present. Those wishing to employ competent teachers will find it to their advantage.
