CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 25, 1871. Strange Demograts.

The Democrats of our county, get erally, behaved nobly, notwithstanding the entangling alliances produced by the accursed "new departure" or ninth resolution of our State platform, which gave the captions and the excessively zealous rare opportunities to deploy their skirmishers on many occasions previous to election day, yet without much damage to the party.

The raid made in this borough and Lawrence township on a portion of our ticket, was unjustifiable and cannot be successfully defended The Democrat who voted for Mr. Boynton or Mr. Graham in preference to Mr.

The Democrats in Bradford, Carwensville and Pike, who acted as the election of Assessor. The three townships elected Radicals to that po-Lee, who needed no fraud of this kind a vote for any of our candidates. A similar job was put up in Pike township. Thus three Democratic Asses and esteem themselves Democrats above all others.
