How to Save Money

THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dolla The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made

I met him once. Says he, "My frieud, I look threadbare and rough; Fre tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough." Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's sound and cheap:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Relienstein & Broth And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others. Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much

And now he finds on Saturday night With all their wants supplied, hat he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside. His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all. If you'd save money, go and buy Your clothes at—

REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL Where the cheapest, finest and best Clothing and good Furnishing Goods can be had to suit every taste and in every style. apr11,70
