How to Save Money, THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show. If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I look threadbare and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you!
I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's sound and cheap:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little be had saved, And went to Reironstein & Brothers', And there he get a handsome suit, For half he paid to others. Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much.

With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to lay saide. His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all.

And now he finds on Saturday night,
